ACCOMPLISHMENTS

STUDENT LIFE

School's out for summer

Without school to occupy the time of students, work seemed to be a popular solution to those endless, hot summer days.

One of the most interesting jobs was held by Margaret White. She was an apprentice at a local radio station. Chris Busbee helped coach boys at a football camp and Ellen Luce and Debby Sharp opened a catering service.

Several people chose travel as the answer to the heatwave that hit Texas. Kathy Kessler and Carrie Freeman wandered around Europe while Margaret Williams, Cathy Cheatum, and Meg Wilson traveled through the Orient with the Highland Park Presbyterian Church Choir. Shelley Branch and Paul Griffin traveled to Switzerland and Israel. The bright sunshine of Hawaii caught the eye of Lee Touchstone and Melissa Stuart.

Kristin Wiley, Blair Gibbs, and Francis Blackwell were among the girls who went to camp. Bonnie O'Rourke taught riding and riflery to girls during her stay at Kamp Kickapoo. David Fuller and Jim Burns spent two weeks camping in the New Mexico mountains.

For those who opted for summer school, "Andover" was the cry. Jonathan Ladd, Alice Toole and Mary Leslie Clements were a few of the scholarly students who went east.

For those who stayed in Dallas, mowing lawns and life guarding were popular ways of combining fun with work. Doug Stuart and Grayson Gill cut grass and trimmed hedges for some big bucks. Anne McConnell and Diane Hoover swam the days away as life guards. Other summer jobs were working at local stores, billing offices, and giving tennis lessons to kids. As always some students chose to relax and just play.

Summer also provided the perfect opportunity for seniors to visit prospective colleges and decide on future plans for the fall.

Million dollar answers: John Marks conquers Al Hammack's questions at the Hi-Lite picnic.

Lucky Duck: Carolyn Floyd spends a leisurely afternoon feeding the fowl.

Betty Crockers: Ellen Luce and Debby Sharpe concoct gourmet delicacies for their part time catering service.

"Show Biz": Highland Park High School was the location for the filming of Ron Howard's movie "Skyward."

Lifting leaves: Bonnie O'Rourke spends time cleaning her swimming pool before taking a dip.

Spirited summer: Anne Christian and Cynthia Davis create Spirit Committee banners at an afternoon workcrew.

Ditch Digger: Mike O'Brien sweats over a hard day's work.

Life in U.S. is "different" for frenchman

Frederic Bonin experienced the American way of life during his year as Highland Park's AFS student.

Frederic, a native Frenchman, spent the year with Lisa Hosford and her family. The Key Club and a Senior Play crew position kept him busy during the year. Some of his favorite activities were going to the Texas Ranger baseball games and the Scot football games. Although Frederic enjoyed the football games, he still was not quite sure what the game was all about.

The major difference Frederic found between school here and in France was that in France "the girls do not walk around without their shoes on" and "they never comb their hair or put makeup on in class." Frederic relished his year as an American and before returning to France decided he wanted cowboy boots and a cowboy hat.

Highland Park students also spent time abroad. Anne Hodge, an '80 H.P. graduate, went to Istanbul through the AFS exchange program while Ellen White spent her year in Srilanka.

Amy Baker

The student body chose eight seniors as school favorites in a January election. Amy Baker served as a Varsity cheerleader and reigned as the 1980 Homecoming Queen. She was also a four-year member of Hi-Lites and participated in the senior play. Kit Case was a captain of the Varsity football team his senior year. He played football all four years at Highland Park. Kit was a Hi-Lite King nominee and a four-year member of Leo Club.

Kit Case

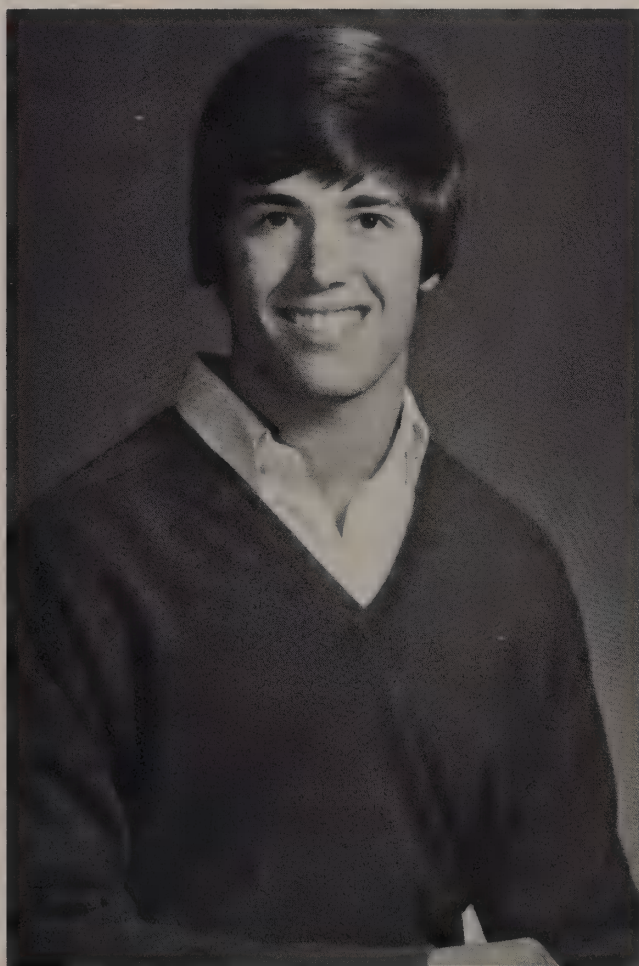

Besides raising school spirit as a Varsity cheerleader, Lynn Hankinson ran on both the Varsity cross country and spring track teams all four years. Lynn was a member of Hi-Lites. Walt Lightbourn was voted Friendliest Boy by his class three years. He was Vice-President of Student Council as a senior and was a two-year member of National Honor Society. Walt also played football for four years and was a member of Leo Club.

As a B-Team and Varsity cheerleader Shirley Miller adds to the Super Scot spirit. She played Varsity soccer for four years and served as captain as a senior. Shirley was elected to the National Honor Society as a junior and was Vice-President her senior year. Murphy Martin transferred from Mt. Pleasant High School his sophomore year. He made great contributions to Highland Park as Student Council President and received honors as the Varsity Scots' defensive safety. Murphy was also a member of the National Honor Society and a Hi-Lite King nominee.

Dan Tubb

Lane Newsom was a member of the Student Council all four years. She served as a cheerleader her sophomore and senior years and was head Varsity cheerleader. Lane ran Varsity track for four years. Dan Tubb worked on the Student Council for four years and was a member of the executive committee as a senior. Dan played football and was a member of F.C.A. and Leo Club. He also served as Bagpipe Co-Sports Editor his senior year and was voted Hi-Lite King.

Autumn eases students into new schedule

September was filled with exciting activities. The Varsity cheerleaders and newly chosen Super Scot, Willie Oldham, boosted school spirit high as the fighting Scots entered their new district.

Students were dismayed to find that, because of the “behind schedule” construction, the parking places near the school could not be used, worsening the parking situation.

Students had a chance to socialize at the annual "Howdy Dance," sponsored by the Student Council, and the friendliest from each grade were announced.

The newly revised bell and club schedule did a good job of keeping H.P. students and faculty confused. The club organizations were finally underway in mid-September with the division of service and interests clubs.

For students planning their college future, College Night was the perfect opportunity to get a first-hand look at various universities in Texas and around the country. Even though students looked ahead to college, parents concentrated on the present. Back-to-School night gave parents a chance to meet the teachers and hear about the upcoming school activities.

1, 2, 3, Kick: Girls try out for musical parts.

Where to?: Anne Nash, Cynthia Norton, and Vicky Hart consider the choices at College Night.

Fashion Show! Hi-Lites officers model the newest in trench coats.

Ready, OK! Wildman Wayne, Dandy Don, Jivin' Jim, and Rockin' Randy vie for new jobs.

Next Please: Mrs. Dillard and Mr. Day assist students in obtaining lodging for their books.

Ringin' For Ronnyl: H.P. students man the phone lines for "our man Reagan."

Christening new stadium finally occurs

October, along with bringing a welcome weather change, brought a "ton" of student activities.

Providing a much needed distraction from homework and school routine, Hi-Lites hosted a dance with a western theme. The couples, dressed in cowboy boots and hats, danced the night away. The money made from the Jamboree was used for the Hi-Lites' Christmas project.

The sophomore girls challenged the undefeated Senior Women to an afternoon of tackle football. The seniors won this rivalry 6-2. "Another one bites the dust . . ."

October 13th, Fair Day, brought a welcome interlude for those recovering from Texas-OU Week-end. The closest most students got to Big Tex this year was the State Fair Music Hall, where they saw Camelot, starring Richard Burton.

October 24 marked the historic christening of the untrod Highlander Stadium. Special guests included former Hi-Park All-State football star, Governor Bill Clements, and the 1945 and 1957 state championship football teams. A pregame party kicked off the festivities. It was followed by a parachuter bringing in the game ball and a victory for the Scots.

The month ended with the Scots' win over the North Garland Raiders. Many students got into the spirit of Halloween and went to the game dressed as ghosts and goblins.

Hola, Bonjour . . . : Doug Stuart introduces the AFS exchange students on AFS Day.

Mmmm good! : Brandon Hall, Lane Newsom, and John Lee raise money for the Commodities Club.

Homecoming Helps Students Down the Road

Homecoming 1980 started in style with the Scots defeating North Garland.

The cheerleaders planned a new and exciting event during the week of Homecoming in the form of a community picnic; however, it was cancelled because of the presidential race.

During halftime the fathers presented to the crowd the six Homecoming Queen nominees; Christy Nichols, Mary Jane Wallace, Diane Hoover, Margaret Coleman, Amy Baker, and Ellen Carpenter.

This was the first year the Homecoming Dance occurred on a Saturday night. The couples went to the new gym and danced to the music of "Larry T-Bird." The theme this year was "Ease on Down the Road." Nancy Hill and Al Hammack headed the Social committee that decorated the gym with bright colored balloons and a poster sized picture of each nominee. Parents and teachers served refreshments and chaperoned the dance. Ellen Carpenter was escorted by Noble Nash, Diane Hoover by Michael Miller, Amy Baker by Dan Tubb, Christy Nichols by Charlie Terrell, Mary Jane Wallace by Al Hammack, and Margaret Coleman by Steve McCoy. The Student Council president then presented roses and an innocent kiss to Amy Baker as he crowned her Homecoming Queen for 1980 to conclude the annual ceremony.

There she is . . . Amy Baker shines after being crowned Homecoming Queen.

We're #1: The victorious Scotties celebrate their triumph after the North Garland game.

Amy and Mr. Phil Baker

Ellen and Mr. Ben Carpenter

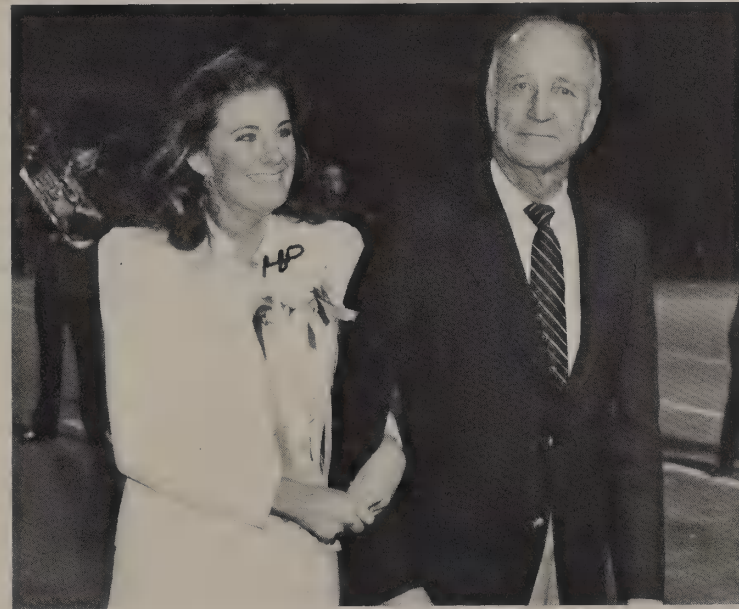

Margaret and Mr. Jack Coleman

Diane and Mr. Harry Hoover

Christy and Mr. Nichols

Mary Jane and Mr. Denny Wallace

Break the banner: Seniors welcome the team with words of encouragement.

PYGMALION

The senior class of 1981 presented Pygmalion this year. Mrs. Linda Raya, directed. London was the scene of the activity. Professor Higgins (Doug Wright) finds a flower girl, Eliza Doolittle (Ellen Felvey) in the street and with the help of Colonel Pickering (David Hawes) takes in the unrefined girl and plans to make her into a lady within six months.

Professor Higgins, a linguist by profession, and Colonel Pickering do refine Eliza and present her to society. The first test for Eliza was Clara Eynsford-Hill (Eleisha Ballard and Mary Jane Wallace, doublecast), Mrs. Eynsford-Hill (Shannon Peters), and Freddy Eynsford-Hill (Ty Burkes and Scott Farrar doublecast).

Heather Swann and Marce Doane were doublecast as Mrs. Pearce, Professor Higgins' housekeeper. Catherine Boren played Mrs. Higgins, the Professor's mother.

Other cast members included Sally Barrier, Elizabeth Seale, Nancye Saunders, Bruce Curll, Pat Brower, Tim Kreatschman. Eliza's father, Alfred Doolittle, was shared by Matt McShane John Marks. Betty Bunte, Evelyn Lake, Mike Crow, Chuck Coronado, Frederic Bonnin, Debbie Sharpe, Tommy Summers, Ronda Ross, Lesley Cottney, and Nick Valentino also contributed their acting abilities.

Crews were headed by Elizabeth French, Monte Smith, Freda Cristol, Alicia Hoyle, Kathryn Raley, Paulette Mariades, Pat Smith, Eloise Elliot, Jennifer Weber, Mary Adams, and Pam Mahaffey.

Dennis Day created the ideas for the set design. Because of the many different settings this was an involved job. The stage managers were Nancy Hill and Trafton Bogert.

Ear Opener: Eliza's (Ellen Felvey) linguistics unnerve Professor Higgins (Doug Wright) and Colonel Pickering (David Hawes).

Need a Bath?: Alfred Doolittle (John Marks) talks with Professor Higgins (Doug Wright) and Colonel Pickering (David Hawes).

High Society: Socialites sip afternoon tea.

Semi-Finalists achieve merit on PSAT test

Twelve semi-finalists were named this year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Highland Park was proud to have these young scholars represent the school. The semi-finalists scored in the top one percent of the nation's seniors on the PSAT/NMSQT taken during the fall of 1979.

The semi-finalists were Bruce Hayes, Houston Holmes, Eric Johnson, Kim Keany, Bill Kilgore, Jennifer Lawler, Kevin Meek, Debby Sharpe, Carr Shelton, Heather Swann, Chip Vokey, and Chris Williams.

The semi-finalists were eligible to qualify for finalists standings if their PSAT/NMSQT scores were equivalent to their SAT scores. In addition to the honor of being named a semi-finalist, these students qualified to compete for university scholarships.

Study Nerds???: Bruce Hayes, Eric Johnson and Kevin Meek do their thing.

Faces of Wisdom: Bill Kilgore, Jennifer Lawler, Houston Holmes and Heather Swann act smart.

Buried in books: Chris Williams, Carr Shelton, Debby Sharpe, and Kim Keany cram for Finals?

Clubs spread spirit of giving at Christmas

December is best remembered by the football teams overwhelming victory in the quarter-finals defeating the Plano Wildcats, 23-21. With the State Championship in mind, the team was inspired by Roger Staubach during the Odessa pep-rally. The Scot round-ballers hosted their annual Scot Classic tournament and finished in second place. The following week, the team, though impeded by injuries, won the consolation flight in the Austin Tournament. Getting in the Christmas spirit, Lads and Lassies Choir presented two concerts to the United Methodist Church. All the choirs participated in caroling to nearby elders, friends and neighbors. Hi-lites officers spread Christmas cheer by making stockings to give to abused children in a day care center. They also took Christmas dinner and presents to a needy family. The Student Council executives collected toys and canned goods to give to a local children's hospital. With 1980 coming to a close, clubs planned Christmas parties to celebrate the end of the year. The Highlander staff had its party with the exchange of gag gifts, after eating appetizers and drinking Fiji punch. The girls' FCA also sponsored a dessert party.

Roger Dodger: Roger Staubach gives an enthusiastic speech at the Odessa pep-rally.

Sweet Surprise: Students raise money to support the school literary magazine, the Tartan.

[illegible][illegible]

Merry Christmas: Choir members carol through the Highland Park halls.

Hey stud: Steve Bullington, Mark Drinkwater, and Clayton Hampton build spirit.
Will it fit?: Kathy Raley looks at her Christmas gift with surprise.

Super Show Halts Routine, Livens Spirits

The month of January brought with it chilling temperatures of seventy degrees and with these arctic conditions there was nothing for H.P. students to do, save stay in doors and make their own fun. In preparation for the thrilling chance to take midyear exams students attended the Senior girls' Dance the weekend before, so everyone could get together and worry that "We May Never Pass This Way Again." The Dealers assisted in the worrying by relieving the tension with soft melodies by medieval composers.

The football banquet honored the semi-finalist H.P. Scots for one final time. The cafeteria never looked better and Stephen Burgher provided "entertainment" with his now classic rendition of "Beast of Burden." The banquet was a success anyway.

The Student Council Supershow provided a break in the routine one day for students. Manning Shannon and Stephen Burgher did duty as M.C.s. John Marks, Chris Busbee, and Paul Paez, the legendary Harmonicats, opened the show, followed by a Senior Girls dance routine. Chris Lallier and Anne McConnel broke away from the dull routine of the first two acts and put on a wild rendition of "On and On." The show returned to the straightforward approach when Bucky Breedlove and Michael Crow took us to the Grapefruit Bowl. Vince Vance played a fine rendition of "Great Balls of Fire" after which they turned into Mercury to close out the show. Next year, the temperatures will warm up and once again H.P. students will be able to head outside where they belong.

Dances, clubs, carnations fill winter month

February brought many student and teacher activities to fill out the winter month. Saturday nights were filled with dances. Girls entertained their guys February 7 at the Hi-lites dance. The Junior Symphony Ball was held February 21. Finally the Junior Girls Dance was Saturday, February 28 at the Stadium Club.

The superstitious day of Friday the thirteenth had a new twist at school. Students received their colorful St. Valentine's Day carnations during first period on the thirteenth. The carnations were a project of AFS. The proceeds go to finance next year's exchange students.

Teachers were appreciated during the week of February 9-13. The administration and teachers enjoyed a tea February 11 which was provided by the Student Council and social committee. Student "entertainment" was provided.

Brotherhood Week was February 16-20. The Brotherhood Assembly February 26 stressed the importance of friendship and love for others.

The Drama Club traveled to UIL competitions. For the second year Thespians provided the Dessert Theatre for students to enjoy.

Dr. E. A. Sigler
Principal

Counselor: Dr. Sigler talks with senior Alison McClelland.
Here you are: Dr. Sigler receives a cup of punch from Mrs. Sigler at the faculty Christmas party.

H.P. changes fall schedule to semesters

Dr. E. A. Sigler began the 1980-81 school year with a memorable summer of deep sea fishing under his belt. He and his family spent two weeks on the Gulf Coast and came home with a 31 pound red fish as a souvenir.

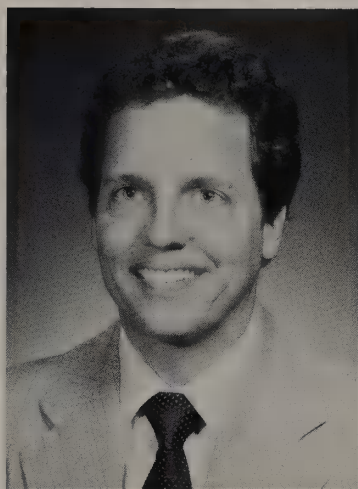

Also during the summer break Dr. Sigler perfected the change to the semester system. He was "pleased to go back to it," and said that it was working very well.

Although the Plano game was a high point in everyone's year, Dr. Sigler was also pleased to serve on the SAT committee. He stated that he was "glad to contribute to a national test" and he enjoyed the association of other professionals in the same field."

In February, Dr. Sigler received the coveted American Educator's Medal, awarded by Freedoms Foundation in Valley Forge, Penn.

Dr. Sigler commented that he enjoyed having his children in the same school in which he worked. It enabled him to observe their participation in school activities.

Assistant to the Principal

Mrs. Therese Rogosin
Assistant to the Principal

Tasters choice: Mrs. Therese Rogosin serves as a judge for the Spanish club guacamole cook-off.

The wizard of ours: Mr. Dale Lawrence helps freshman Katie Hennings solve a minor problem.

Lawrence is new assistant to Dr. Sigler

Assistant Principal Mrs. Therese Rogosin began her second year at Highland Park High School "feeling more comfortable" with her job and "more efficient." She spent the year supervising the ninth and eleventh grades.

Passing periods and club periods both underwent drastic changes this year. Mrs. Rogosin felt, however, that even with longer passing periods, tardies did not necessarily improve. She also believed the school needed more interest clubs, so every student could find a club that dealt with his or her interest.

When asked what the high point of her year had been, Mrs. Rogosin replied, "The football season."

Mrs. Rogosin spent her summer in Austin continuing course work on her doctorate.

A new Assistant Principal also walked the halls of Highland Park. However, for Mr. Dale Lawrence, it was not the first time. He spent the spring of 1977 at Highland Park doing his internship. He worked with the tenth and twelfth grades this year.

When asked to compare our students with other schools, Mrs. Lawrence said that students everywhere are more alike than different, but our "student body is more unified." He said that in general students were "serious about school and they tried to get something out of it by putting something into it."

Mr. Lawrence, married and father of three children, enjoys all sports, fishing and camping. He is also working towards his doctorate at North Texas State.

School Board opens stadium, sets new goals

The 1980 School Board undertook the establishment of several changes during the year. The greatest change was the reinstigation of the semester system, as opposed to the tri-mester system, in accordance with state law.

The members of the School Board worked with parents, students, faculty, and administrators to formulate the "Student Learner Goals." They accepted these goals during the 1980 year. Board members also instituted a Comprehensive Logic Course for Highland Park High School.

One of the greatest events for Highland Park was the opening of the rebuilt Highlander Stadium. In accordance with this, the School Board played a large part in the dedication of the stadium.

Teachers stay occupied with varied hobbies

The faculty members had many interesting hobbies, many of which included outdoor activities, such as hiking and fishing. Teachers also participated in dancing and other exercises. Photographers Mr. Dave McElwee, Mrs. Gloria Hamilton, and Mrs. Terry Rogosin focused on their favorite subjects, while music buffs Mrs. Pat Galloway, Mr. Jerry Smith, Mrs. Betty Guest, and Mrs. Mary Hoebeke kept the beat. Other musicians included Dr. Lawrence Puckett, who played the flamenco and classical guitar, and Ms. Paula Duckworth, who played the cello.

Needlepoint, macrame, and embroidery were popular crafts among the female members of the faculty. Others, such as Mr. Jordan, bided their time gardening, while Mrs. Pamela Bush, Mrs. Sheree Davis, and Ms. Genice Self preferred to stay inside and cook gourmet dishes. Mrs. Brown enjoyed taking care of her Golden Retriever puppies, and Mrs. Blankenship supported her son's soccer team.

Other faculty members took part in unusual activities. Mrs. Leitner made a hobby of collecting living creatures, while Mrs. Pierce's interests were in astronomy. Mrs. Shiela Douthit helped organize the "People to People" Ambassador Program to Europe.

Though all have their own specialties, Mrs. Peper summed up teachers' feelings when she said her talents were "too numerous to list, a jack of all trades and master of none."

Two bits, four bits: Mr. Mastandrea helps the cheerleaders boost spirit at a pep rally.

Say ahhh: Mr. Wilkes discovers what the trouble is with his ailing muppet.

Many faculty members spent their summer vacations furthering their education by attending various workshops, clinics, and seminars. While most of the teachers took courses in the Dallas area, some attended workshops out of town and state. Miss Lynne Logue took an Energy seminar in Austin, Texas, while Miss Cressan Milligan completed six hours of graduate credit in Spanish overseas in Madrid, Spain. Mr. Don O'Quinn attended a convention of science teachers in Exeter, New Hampshire.

Some faculty members did graduate work towards their degrees, such as Mrs. Pamela Bush, who took twelve hours toward her Master's in comparative literature. Mr. Don Brown worked on his dissertation for his PhD, while Ms. Maggie Reeves completed her certification for elementary education at North Texas State University.

Other seminars kept teachers busy this summer, preparing them to help students. At the University of Texas in Arlington Ms. Norma Fries took a course on computer and math education and, Dr. Lawrence Puckett attended a safety seminar there.

For many Highland Park faculty members, traveling was an exciting way to beat the summer heat.

Europe was the destination of Dr. L. V. Puckett and Mrs. Priscilla Fish as they led Hi Park students on the AIFS travel program.

"Sun and relaxation" was the motto of Mrs. Pamela Bush, who journeyed to Nassau, and Mrs. Catherine Morris, who visited Newport Beach. Other staff enjoying the ocean were Miss Willetta Peckham, Mrs. Evelyn Drury, and Ms. Genice Self. Ms. Self sailed off the New England coastline and said, "It was great and next summer I hope to sail even farther." Mrs. Carolyn Brown's Gulf vacation was cut short when she had to flee Hurricane Allen.

Students Look to Counselors for Guidance

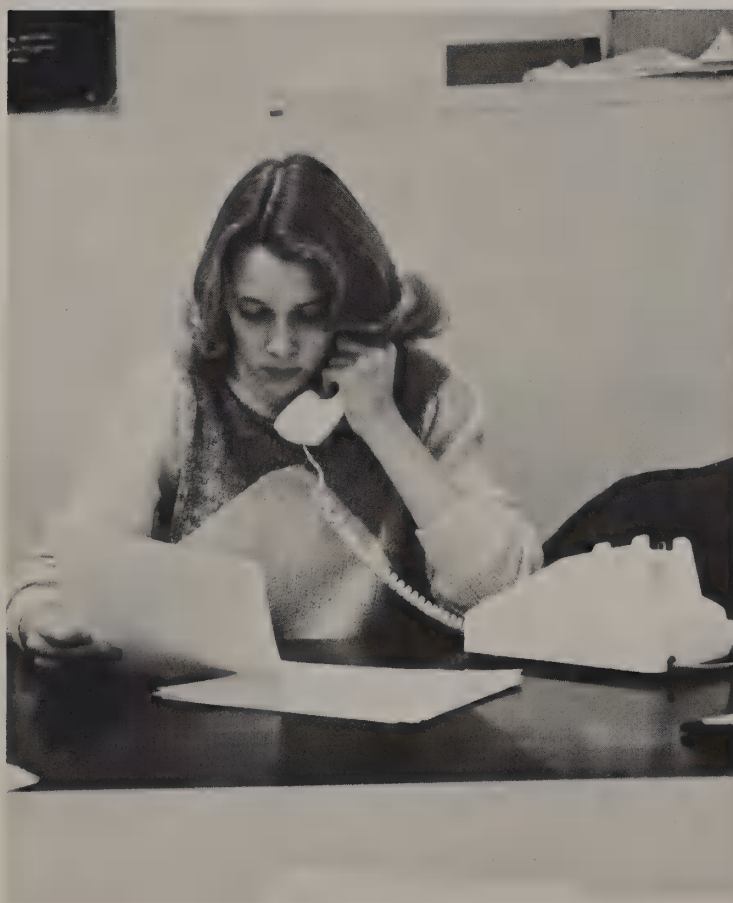

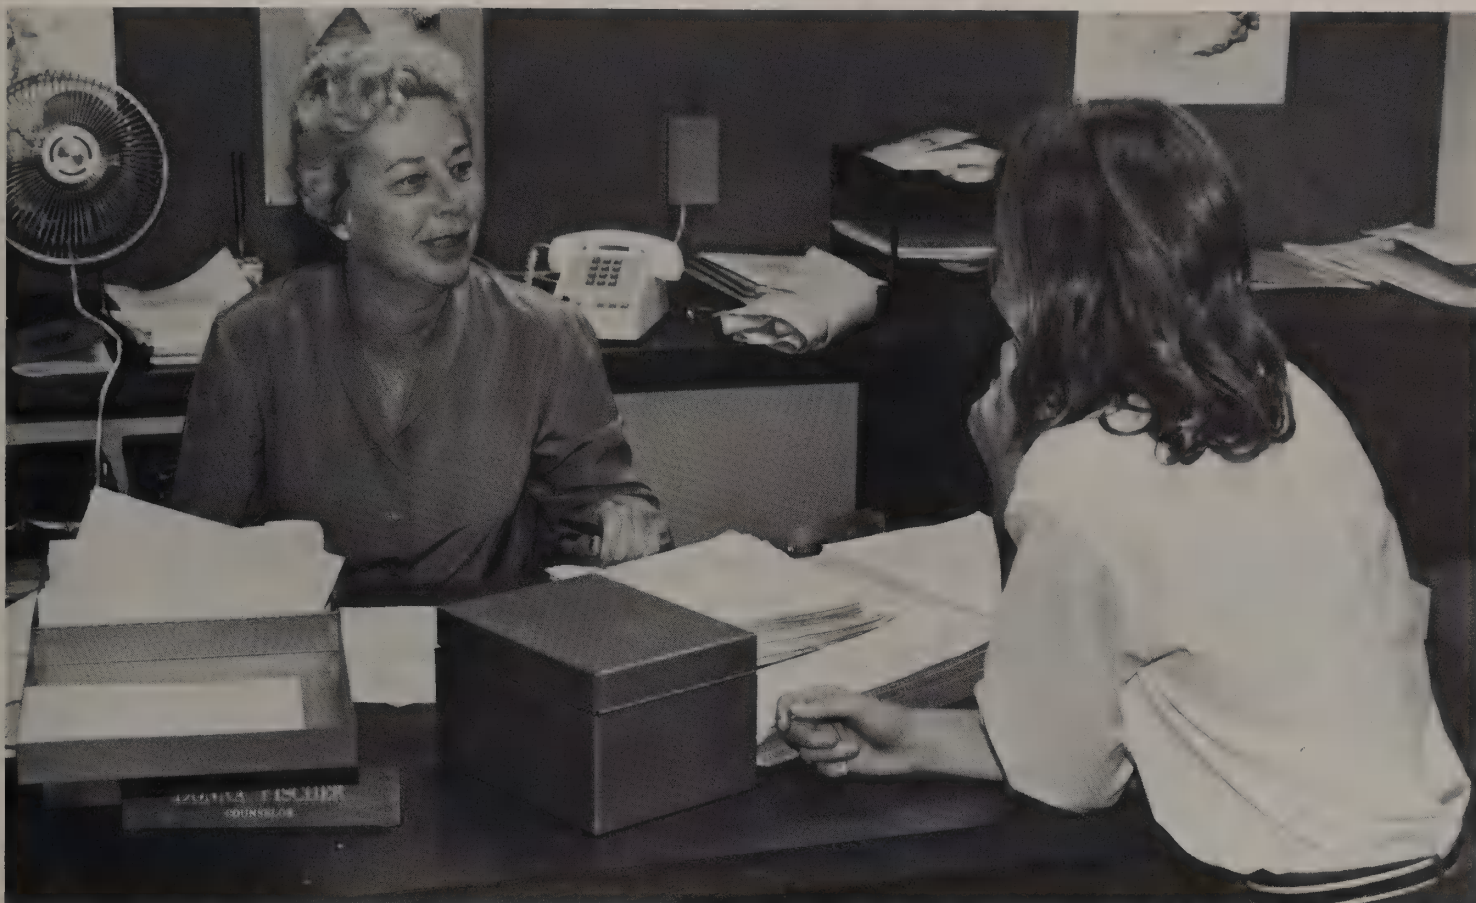

During their many hours of time and effort, the counselors, attendance secretaries, librarians, and the nurse played an important role in the lives of students. Freshman counselor Mrs. Barbara Rider aided incoming freshmen in feeling at home in their new environment. While the sophomores and juniors received advice from Mrs. Willetta Peckham and Mrs. Donna Fischer on preparing their four year plan, the seniors deliberated their college choices with the help of Mrs. Betty Guest.

In the Attendance office, Mrs. Marion Lyons and Mrs. Joyce Carmichael kept occupied by recording student absences and tardies, as well as sending messages.

Head librarian Mrs. Mary Hoebeke and assistants Mrs. Marlene Stewart and Mrs. Betty Work maintained a quiet atmosphere in the library which was ideal for research and studying. Student workers helped by checking out books, running errands, and keeping the shelves in order.

Nurse Mrs. Delores Snodgrass treated students who were weakened by headaches, sore throats, and other ailments. Additionally, she updated records of height and weight for each student. As the flu season warmed up, students were seen trailing to the clinic.

Keep it clean: Library assistant Eric Grossman straightens the workroom.
Sounds good: Mrs. Fischer consults with junior class officer Caren Cain.
Open wide: Julie Jones looks upward as Mrs. Snodgrass peers down her throat.
One ringy-dingy . . . Cindy Kennedy calls to check on students' absences.

Speechless! Michael Meadows and Diane Fullingim enjoy the money collected from a speech team fund raiser.

Double, double toil and trouble: Dina Jones and Suzie Beilharz perform their own version of Macbeth.

Under the direction of second year chairman, Mrs. Carolyn Brown, AP English students took a look at Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and Herman Melville's Moby Dick. Mrs. Brown and her students worked hard in preparation for their AP exam.

Meanwhile, regular senior classes experienced Shakespeare's Hamlet and Golding's Lord of the Flies. Emphasis for composition included clarity, organization, and style.

Junior students explored primarily American literature, including Mark Twain's Huckleberry Finn. They also attempted to compose their first term theme.

Junior major works students had a chance to experience the horrors of Russian Communism in Darkness at Noon. They also continued their development of controlled and structured writing.

Pressure, which included such works as Julius Caesar, The Red Badge of Courage and The Diary of Anne Frank.

Freshman students were instructed in the basics of reading comprehension and writing skills. Freshman students also read The Merchant of Venice, which gave them their first taste of Shakespeare. In addition to Shakespeare they also studied Greek mythology.

Drama students studied acting and directing techniques as well as play production and history of the theatre. Mrs. Raya's senior students were responsible for the play Pygmalion. They also made trips to local day care centers to perform their self-written Christmas plays.

First year speech students developed speaking skills and heightened their mental attitude toward speaking situations. Advanced students showed their superior skills in state forensic tournaments. Mrs. Anne Miley is expecting an exceptional year.

Shakespeare, Twain Capture Students' Hearts

For the last time: Miss Peper explains an algebra equation to a confused student.

Pretty projects: Trig students fix a display.
Help: Miss Bardo works with pupils.

You've got it! Calculus teacher Mrs. Hamilton helps Al Hammack work a problem.

Math Students "Calculate" Fun With Projects

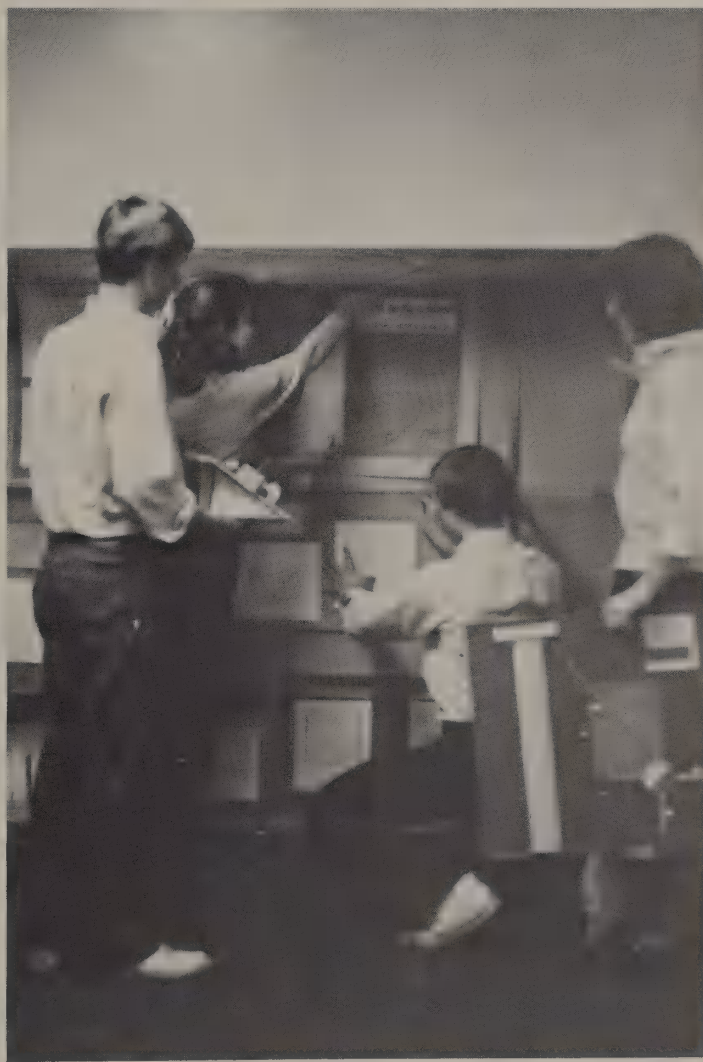

In most schools the math wing is usually solemn and quiet; not so at H.P. Between Mrs. Gloria Hamilton's exciting calculus discussions, Mr. Mastandrea's baritone narrations of geometry, and Miss Walter's trigonometry projects there is never a dull moment. Mrs. Hamilton's calculus and Miss Walter's trig were not new at H.P., but Mr. Mastandrea's geometry was. Mr. Mastandrea, or "Big M" as he's known to most of his students, joined the faculty this year and made a definite place for himself at H.P. First of all, his deep voice echoing the halls added variety to other math classes, as secondly, he taught his eager students geometry with exciting and energetic lectures.

A not altogether new, but interesting math activity were the calculus parties held by Mrs. Hamilton's students. Several students would meet at someone's house and consider and calculate their infamous take-home tests.

Once again in November Miss Walter's trig projects brightened up the mathematics wing with interesting and creative graph displays.

All these things, helped make 1980-1981 an exciting year in the math department.

Sick! Suzanne Asaff dissects a fetal pig in AP Biology with the help of Mrs. Liljestrand.

Anorexia or what?: Karen Biehl and Bill Tucker study the bone structure of the human body.

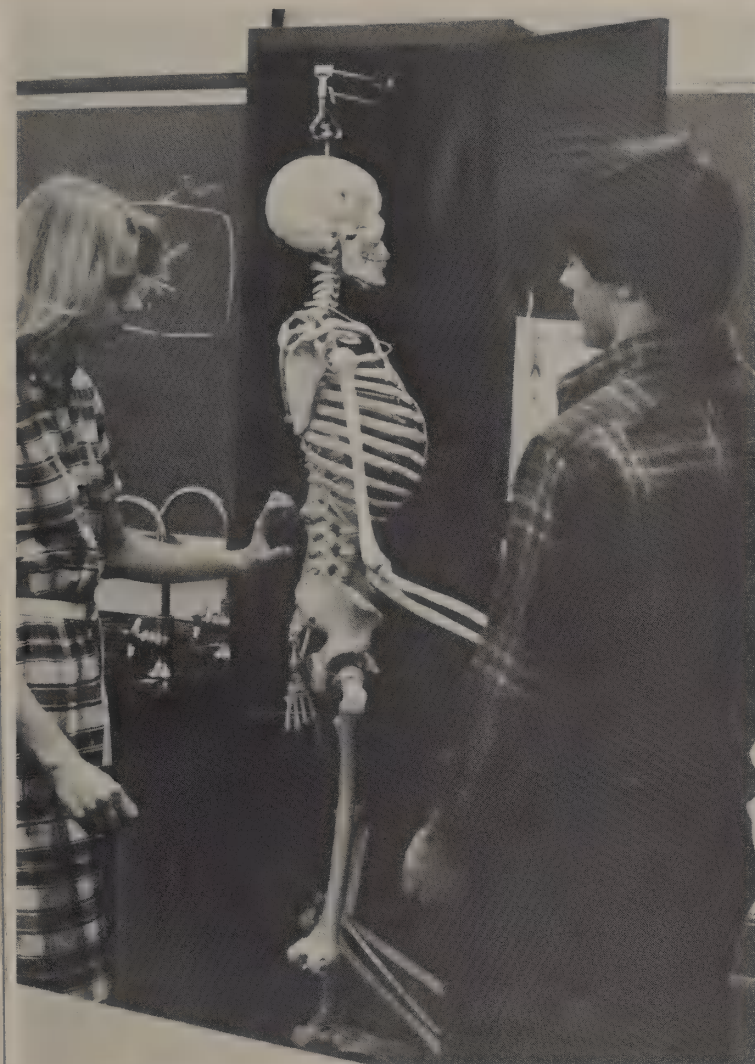

HP Students Work Miracles in Science Labs

As October 31, Halloween, approached advanced chemistry students were conjuring up ghosts and goblins for their fellow classmates while other chemistry students were studying atoms, gas laws and molecular composition of gases.

Physics students studied Newton's laws, Inertia, and conducted many experiments under the direction of Mr. Don O'Quinn.

Major works biology students worked on genetics and various forms of plants, animals, and their environment. Advanced biology students learned how to dissect fetal pigs.

Do what?: Dr. Puckett explains ■ principle to student Sara Coin.

Handy helpers: A.P. History students arrange the bulletin board for a new look.

Hot notes: Mariman Simpson tries to peek at Lisa Reed's paper in Mrs. Morris' class.

Serious supporters: John Lee and Leigh Anne Sherer express their governmental feelings.

Troublesome term paper: Mimi Calder diligently works on her theme.

The Social Studies department had a very productive year. In World History, students learned about the cultures of different people all over the globe over a period of a million years. Mrs. Cathy Morris' classes did special projects on the Renaissance period.

In American History there were several outside reading assignments on the Old West and the World Wars. There were also many oral reports and discussions including a debate on the causes of the Civil War. In Mr. Don Brown's AP classes, students worked especially hard to prepare for the AP Test in May.

Mr. Jim Lee's and Mr. David McElwee's economics classes focused on the laws of supply and demand and consumer's rights. While the government classes concentrated on the significance of civil rights and the Constitution. For extra credit, students worked several hours each week for the political candidate of their choice in the 1980 Presidential Campaign. They made hundreds of telephone calls, addressed just as many envelopes, and canvassed door-to-door.

Elections Have H P Students Ringing Doorbells

Spanish specialists: Students present a group report to an interested class.

Study hard: Miss Lehman goes over the day's German lessons.

Don Quixote: Spanish whiz Tod Foster displays his project.
French flick: French students buy tickets to the latest film.

First and second year Spanish classes spent the year studying verb tenses and vocabulary while they also learned about Spanish culture. Third level students acquired knowledge of Spanish grammar. Many forms of Spanish literature by a variety of authors were the focus of fourth level students. AP students intensely studied famous Spanish novelists and poets in preparation for the Advanced Placement exam.

In the Latin courses, students enjoyed a Roman banquet in the spring as a "fun" addition to their curriculum. First year pupils gained insights into Roman mythology as well as Latin vocabulary and verb conjugation. The higher level Latin classes did reports on Roman culture and translated plays and other works.

In the French classes, first year students were enlightened on the basics of conversational French. Those on the second level studied verbs and began their study of literature. The third year group intensified their literature study with a novel by Camus and polished up their grammar. Novels by Balzac and Ionesco and other major literary works took most of the time of fourth level classes. The upperclassmen in AP French concentrated on novels and plays by famous French authors as they prepared for the Advanced Placement exam.

The German classes studied European culture which included an interesting study of music. Their time was occupied with many skits and reports in the German language.

Banquet, Skits, Extra Reports Occupy Hours

Drama, Music Allow Students To Be Creative

Highland Park students learned to express their creativity in fine and practical art courses taken this year.

Choir members performed at locations throughout the Park Cities and worked steadily on the spring musical "Flower Drum Song."

Orchestra and Band students worked full time on music for football games, concerts and numerous contests.

Drama students learned how to express others' ideas by acting out scenes from plays and also studied historical societies. Advanced Drama students worked on the senior play Pygmalion.

Speech students learned to express their ideas to others by learning to speak correctly.

Art classes used pastels, clay, ink, and water colors to show their creativity.

Elementary Mechanical drawing students learned to use T-squares and triangles. More advanced students, showing their creative abilities, designed full scale model homes.

Many students developed their typing skills to prepare for papers which they would type in the future.

Elementary accounting students worked on keeping their spendings less than their budget.

Bass band: Bass players Jim Burns, Tommy McBride, and Robbie Leftwich practice for an upcoming orchestra concert.

Students Get First Aid in Physical Ed

Physical Education classes supplemented the usual academic routine for many Highland Park students. These classes included mandatory semesters in cardiovascular-swimming, fundamental team sports, and a P.E. elective. Because of the change to the semester system, cardiovascular training and aquatics were combined in a single course in which the students stressed their weakest area. Most Freshmen were also required to take one semester of health.

There were many P.E. electives from which to choose. Students perfected their tumbling skills in gymnastics and learned the "ins and outs" of camping, boating, and fishing in outdoor education. Other courses offered were racket sports, weight training, and advanced team sports.

Driver's Education helped students prepare for their licenses. It included twelve hours of behind-the-wheel practice and class time learning the "rules of the road."

ATHLETICS

Pride of 1980

1980 Scots attain many firsts

The 1980 version of the Gold Machine opened up the decade in style; proving to be a team which achieved many firsts. This first Scot team of the 80's advanced into the new AAAAA classification and began a fresh start in district 10AAAAA. On October 24, the 1980 Scots became the first team to play in the new Highlander Stadium, a 3.5 million dollar structure.

The Varsity was also the first H.P. team to ever play six games in Texas Stadium, the Scots "home away from home." Obviously the most important first earned by this year's Varsity was their status as the winningest team in H.P. history. The 1980 Scots won an unprecedented 13 games.

Entering 10AAAAA, the Varsity won the district crown and advanced through the playoffs. In the quarter finals climax, the Scots staged an incredible fourth quarter comeback to defeat their archrival the Plano Wildcats, in the last 45 seconds of the game. The following week Odessa Permian handed the Scots their first defeat and went on to become the State Champions.

The gold machine gained 4711 total yards of offense this year while holding opponents to only 2430 yards. On the scoreboards, the Scots chalked up 351 points and only allowed 159 points. The year was a great success.

Head Coach Frank Bevers guided the Scots and earned honors as Coach of the Year in 10AAAAA. His staff included Coaches Randy Emery, defensive coordinator; Wayne Johnson, defensive secondary; Don Richardson, offensive line; Jim Castellaw, offensive line; and Doug Gibbons, trainer. Seniors John Barns, Kit Case, Steve McCoy, and Charlie Terrell led the team on the field as captains and contributed their individual talents to the games.

Early contests prepare team for new district

Opening the 1980 season with a victory, the H.P. Scots crushed the MacArthur Cardinals, 26-3. Quarterback Rob Moerschell and running back Manning Shannon combined for 220 of the Scots 236 total yards rushing.

Traveling to Sherman, H.P. ripped the Bearcats to come up with their second victory. After a close score at half-time, the Scots scored 4 touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters to bring up a score of 41-14.

In Texas Stadium, the Varsity rolled over the Denison Yellowjackets, 35-10. Fullback Kit Case had an excellent game scoring a 60 yard touchdown and finishing with 141 yards for only 14 carries. The defense proved itself in an impressive goalline stand during the closing minutes of the first half.

During the preseason games, the Scots gave their fans a preview of the talent and pride that would remain as a mark of the team throughout their season. The Scots were ready to enter district play.

Scots take district, 10-0 record

Entering district 10AAAAA, the Varsity first traveled to Garland to defeat the Owls 28-14. Scot touchdowns included runs by Rob Moerschell and Kit Case, and two scoring bombs thrown by Moerschell to Cullen Davis and Al Hammack.

The defense rose to the occasion allowing Garland only 124 yards rushing and holding them on an important goal line stand. The victory, however, was costly for the Scots as Case was lost for the season due to a knee injury and Moerschell received an ankle injury which caused the QB to miss two games.

Highland Park returned to Texas Stadium to blast the South Garland Colonels 27-7. The entire team picked up the slack left by the absence of Case and Moerschell.

Defensively, the Scots held the Colonels to 7 points as Murphy Martin hauled in three interceptions. The Varsity dedicated this important victory to their injured captain Kit Case.

Next the Scots journeyed to North Mesquite where they crushed the Stallions 42-20. By halftime H.P. had run up a 35 point lead by scoring on five of six possessions.

QB Bart Bevers was hot all night completing 6 of 8 passing attempts for 134 yards and 2 touchdowns. Scoring players included Bevers, Shannon, Bonnet, Hammack, and Glenn Watson. Defensive standout Steve McCoy set up one of the touchdowns by recovering a fumble on the Stallion 26 yard line.

The Scots celebrated the long-awaited opening of Highlander Stadium with a 17-8 victory over Mesquite. Governor Bill Clements led the dedication ceremonies, and a skydiver dropped to mid-field with the game ball.

For Homecoming, the Scots hosted North Garland, stomping the Raiders 24-10. Moerschell led the team by rushing 110 yards on 13 carries and completing a 26 yard touchdown pass to Hammack.

Traveling to Memorial Stadium, the Scots bombed Lakeview Centennial, 28-3. Moerschell opened the scoring on the first play of the game running 75 yards for a touchdown. The offense easily scored 21 points in the first quarter, and Scot reserves saw action during the entire second half.

The last district game, Wilmer-Hutchins, arrived at Highlander Stadium to meet the Scots in a showdown that would determine the district champion. After a tough game, the Scots clinched the victory with a score of 16-8.

Crow opened the scoring with a 19 yard field goal early in the first period. The remaining H.P. touchdowns came in the form of 21 and 39-yard passes thrown by Moerschell to Hammack.

The Scot defense continually came up with the big play to halt the Eagles scoring opportunities throughout the game. Wilmer-Hutchins' only score came when an Eagle defensive end ran back a Scot fumble.

The defense held Wilmer on the Scot 2 yard line where Dan Tubb came up with a crucial fumble recovery. Steve McCoy made an interception deep in Scot territory and recovered a fumble which ended the Eagles chances in the final minutes.

This victory earned the Scots the district crown, a perfect 10-0 record, and a berth in the state playoffs. For loyal Scot fans, students and adults the season was a smash.

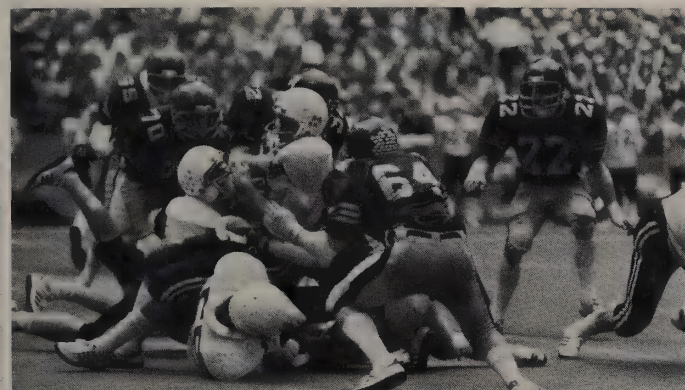

We believe: Glenn Watson (36) runs for the winning touchdown in the Plano game as Walt Lightbourn (55) clears the way.

H.P. advances to playoffs, defeats Plano

In their first playoff game, the Varsity rushed Trinity, 20-6, to win the bi-district title. The offense generated 319 yards as Rob Moerschell ran for two touchdowns and threw a 39 yard scoring pass to Al Hammack. The defense won the game for the Scots by holding the Trojans to only six points. Defensive standouts included Gary Cavagnaro, Steve McCoy, Steve Burgher, Charlie Terrell, Murphy Martin, and Cliff Alexander.

Highland Park defeated South Oak Cliff 21-14 in the regionals game. After a half-time score of 14-14, the Scots came out and moved the ball 71 yards in 15 plays. John Bonnet capped the effort by scoring the winning touchdown.

The Scots advanced to quarterfinals to face their bitter rival PLANO. During the week before the game tension and excitement built throughout the entire school. Reporters and television crews visited the practices regularly, and the Dallas Morning News devoted a special section of its paper to cover the rivalry. By Friday the fervor almost reached its peak at one of the best pep rallies of the year. The Scots were ready.

Saturday, December 6, 1980. The date of a game Scot fans will always remember. Highland Park staged a miraculous, final comeback to defeat the Plano Wildcats 23-21 and destroy the Plano Myth. At half-time the Scots were trailing 14-3 and in the third quarter Plano added another touchdown to bring about a 21-3 lead. In the last 20 seconds of the 3rd quarter, Scot Pride emerged as Noble Nash scored on a 60-yard pass from Moerschell. The comeback had started. The next possession Moerschell threw a 40 yard bomb to Cullen Davis who brought the ball to the Plano 15 yard line. Brian Glasscock scored three plays later to make the score 21-16.

After the fired up Scot defense held and only three plays, the offense got the ball and began the incredible final drive. With 28 seconds left, Moerschell threw a screen pass to Glenn Watson. Led by the entire team, Watson stormed into the endzone from the 30 yard line to give Highland Park the lead. The final score was 23-21. The fans went wild, astounded at the brilliance of the game.

In the semi-finals the Scots suffered the first defeat of the season. Odessa Permian, the eventual state champs, won the game 21-3.

J.V. football ends year with winning record

Living up to Highland Park pride, the Junior Varsity Scots finished the season 8-2, to compile their best record since 1967.

Starting the season off right, the Scots ripped MacArthur 27-0 with Adam Cox catching two touchdown passes, and a touchdown each from Brian Glasscock and Kevin Hayes. The J.V. completed the preseason with a come from behind 28-14 victory over Sherman with Cox, Hays and Henry Miller scoring.

The B-team form was never better as they began district play on a good note by beating Denison 20-12 with Glasscock and Cox scoring. The Scots came back the next week to easily shutout Garland 34-0.

South Garland fell to the Scots 20-6 with Glasscock and Cox again scoring touchdowns. Putting the Scots at a 6-0 record the JV edged North Mesquite 34-12 thanks to fine defensive play led by Joe Guffey with a 55 yard touchdown interception. Offensive touchdowns came from Cox, Glasscock and Miller.

After leading Mesquite 14-0 at the end of the third quarter, the Scots lost a heartbreaker as the Skeeters rallied to win 24-14. The JV gave up their second loss to North Garland when defeated 26-9 with the only points coming on a 21 yard touchdown pass from Greg Stovall to Brian Miller and a 21 yard field goal from David Hopkins.

The JV Scots bounced back in a spectacular come-from-behind victory over Lakeview Centennial. Being down 18-3 in the third quarter, the Scots came back to win 20-18 with the winning 29 yard field goal coming from Hopkins. Hopkins also made a field goal in the first quarter with touchdowns coming from Henry Miller passes to Craig Bailey and Brian Miller. The Scots finished the season with a 10-8 victory over Wilmer-Hutchins with points coming from a Hopkins field goal and a 70-yard touchdown run by Hays.

Also making valuable contributions were Monte Snyder, Phillip Worthen, Matt Adams, Charlie Davis, Robert Turner, Dan Tomlin, Jeff Fronterhouse and Scott Sessions. Coaches Cecil Holmes, Orville Jones, Red Ellis and Ray Wadle strongly led the Scots through the 1980-1981 season.

New coaches bring changes for Freshmen

The Highland Park Freshman football team led by head coach Ronnie Van Hooser, had six wins, two losses and one tie for the season. The assistant coaches were Richard Bohac and Al Hawes. The captains for the 1980 frosh football team were Chuck Hutchison, John Rutledge, and Erik Mays. Although the 9th grade Scots did not win their district, they were a group of talented athletes with promising futures. Outstanding players for the Scots were Rod Jones, Glenn Evans, Greg Aldridge, Chuck Hutchison, Gary Christian, Andy Benthol, Dave Richards, Brooks Weir, and the three captains.

Also off the field contributions to the team were trainers Walt Holmes and Ted Kern; Managers Rod Hargrave, Darren Crouser and Greg Adair. The Scots are looking forward to next year with hopes for a good spring training.

Scot b-ballers take another twenty games

Once again the Highland Park Varsity Basketball team is on their way to a 20-plus season. The relatively short yet fast and dead-eye shooting team, led by Coach Bo Snowden and assistant Tom Shelton, finished the first half of district with a 3-4 record but with a great chance to take the second half title.

Led by tri-captains Mark McIlyar, Lex Fitzenhagen, and Robert Martin, the Scots had an 18-6 non-district record with a runner-up finish against R. L. Turner in the Scot Classic and a very strong showing at the Austin Tournament in December.

Varsity Scots journey back to 10-AAAAA

The Scots went back to district 10-AAAAA but they received a harsh welcome. Despite an 18-6 pre-district record, H. P. slumped to 3-4 in the first half of district. However, in the losing games, they were all lost by a total of eleven points. The Scots snapped back to a quick 2-0 record at the beginning of the second half of district.

Leading scorers for the Scots have been Robert Martin, David Swanson, Lex Fitzenhagen, and Steve Lyon. Martin, in fact, was selected to the All-Tournament team at the Austin Tournament in December and is a good bet along with Lex Fitzenhagen for All-District honors.

CROSS COUNTRY

H.P. joggers collect medals, win trophies

"Born to Run" seemed to be the 1980 boy's cross-country team's motto as they traveled around the metroplex gathering trophies and metals at every stop. The team followed in the shadow of last year's team — a team which boldly went where no H.P. cross-country team had gone before; to state. With three of the members back, the Scots trampled to unexpected victories over tough opponents. Coach Jim Mouser deliberately challenged the bold team with every quality team in the metroplex, but none could stop the mighty Scots. Tom Breedlove, Steve Bullington and Geza DeGall — the three seniors — led the runners and displayed the leadership which enabled the others — Parnell McCarter, Mike Lucas, David Glass and Scott Durham — to contribute in the victories. These men went through legal disputes, White Rock Lake catastrophies and other horrors, but they never let up — until the end of the season.

The Scots did earn the right to boast their second district title in as many years, against the strongest district field ever. However, the next week the team was rudely awakened and thrown off of cloud nine. The H.P. men placed fourth in the regional competition. Individually, though, Steve Bullington placed ninth — a finish which earned Steve a trip to Austin; where he ran well. With three returning varsity runners the team looks forward to next season.

CROSS COUNTRY

Lady runners strive hard, run to state

After many vigorous 10-mile workouts at White Rock Lake, the girls' cross country team completed their season, bringing home first place trophies. Up through and including the district meet the varsity and junior varsity teams captured first places. At the district meet, held at White Rock, Wendy Irwin finished first, followed by Mary Leslie Clements, Amy Taylor, Lynn Hankinson, Karen Kessler, Anne Beall, and Amy Sexton. The J.V.'s season ended with a clean sweep at district; all runners finished in the top ten. The J.V., known as the "blonde bombers," consisted of Electra Thomas, Eugenia Skidmore, Elizabeth New, Frances Blackwell, Kelty Barber, and Jennifer New.

The district win qualified the varsity for Regionals, held in Arlington. The team, led by Wendy Irwin, finished first. The state meet was at Southwestern University in Georgetown. Senior Mary Leslie Clements finished an outstanding fourth place, and Irwin, fourteenth. The team came out with a third, behind Clear Lake and El Paso. The H.P. Scotts congratulate these runners on a fine season and look forward to next year, when five of the seven varsity girls will be returning.

TRACK

New coaches guide runners through meets

The boy's track team began their season under the leadership of new coaches. Mr. Richard Bohac, a world history teacher, and Mr. Cecil Holmes, also a history teacher, assumed the new coaching positions.

Senior co-captains Steve Bullington and Murphy Martin led the team through daily workouts at Park A. The runners opened up the 1980 season with a meet on February 21. The district meet was held in April.

Lady runners prepare for competition

The girl's track team worked out hard every day. Several members began training during the fall semester in order to be in top shape.

Under the guidance of Coach Jim Mouser and Captains Katie Hutchison, Electra Thomas, and Shelley Branch, the team opened up the season on February 28 at the Richardson Invitational meet. Highland Park hosted its own meet on March 14. The team also competed in meets at Mesquite, R. L. Turner, and Madison. The district meet was held April 9 and 10.

Full speed ahead: Callie Petty and Mary Van Ellis sprint around a curve.

BASEBALL

New Advisor brings hope to Scottie ballers

Guiding the 1981 Varsity baseball season was captain Rob Moershell.

Al Hawes, the new coach of the Scottie ballers, came to Highland Park at the end of the school year and coached the high school's American Legion team. In addition to baseball he also spends time in the fall coaching freshman football.

This year's team was very experienced for the '81 season. There were eight returning lettermen to the squad including Coach Hawes' son Jimbo, who decided to come to H.P. along with his father.

The team was looking forward to highly challenging competition, and with the efforts of coaches Al Hawes, and Orville Jones, had an excellent season.

SOCCER

1981 brings tough new turf to H.P. Soccer

The 1981 soccer team was introduced to the new turf this year. With the opening of the new Highlander Stadium, Scot soccer players had the new experience of playing on astroturf. Players feel this new field will give their game added excitement because the ball travels faster on the hard surface. However, injuries may be more prevalent this season due to the strain put on the knees.

The fighting Scots began their training early in December under the guidance of third year coach, Dave Fricke. 1980 veterans Trey Angel and Javi Millet assisted Fricke in taming the soccer J-V team, made up primarily of Freshmen and Sophomores. Varsity captains Tom Pettinger and Doug Stuart displayed outstanding leadership during the required absence of coaches until late January, a UIL rule. Pre-season conditioning consisted of vigorous long and short distance running, skills-practicing, and SCR images against other school teams.

The Scots entered a new district this year which proved to be equally as competitive as the previous district. March 16 saw the first season game against North Mesquite, and despite the lack of returning Varsity players the H.P. Soccer team played well in 1981.

SOCCER

Soccer Team Guides Scots to New District

With 7:30 workouts that did not start till January, coach Mindy Simmons had her work cut out for her.

The varsity team was led by captains, Shirley Miller, Ellen Luce, and Leigh Anne Sherer. Outstanding players were Laura Blakeley, Leslie List and Missie Soloman.

The junior varsity led by captains Blaire Gibbs, Laura Bryan and Amy Sexton welcomed many new freshmen like Emily Christian and Susan Martin. These players, combined with returning players demonstrated their potential with a very good season.

Hard practices produce more volleyball wins

H. P. volleyballers improved their record in district play this season. Senior tri-captain Bonnie O'Wynne commented, "Our teams were close, and that helped us with our performance on the court."

The key to the varsity's success this year was its overall unity and teamwork. "We were covered in all areas; offense, and defense," said tri-captain Margie Lawler. Caroline Sharpley, the third captain remarked "our versatility really showed this season. We did some things our opponents did not anticipate we could do." All three captains agreed that the big preseason win over Plano helped fire up the team for district. The varsity team next year will have seven returning members. When asked about next year's team, Coach Mindy Simmons answered with enthusiasm, "Our team is beginning to work together which gives us more options in court strategy."

The junior varsity Scots had an impressive season. Captains Courtney Johnson and Alison Bonham both agreed that their new district was tough opposition but they worked together to overcome all the obstacles. The J.V. showed their strength, by coming out ahead when their backs were to the wall. "The volleyball teams of the future should be very strong," said Coach Simmons.

Three girls earned district recognition this year. Caroline Sharpley, voted most valuable player for the Scots two years in a row, was chosen to the district 10-5A first team. Two juniors made the all-district teams. Amy Duncan was chosen for the second team and Susan Reed was named to the honorable mention team.

TENNIS

Tennis team ranks eighth in state meet

After a rigorous fall schedule including the regional and state team tournaments, the tennis team will go to off-season afternoon workouts in preparation for district 10-5A spring competition.

Under the coaching of Mrs. Kay Kyle, Scot netters won numerous dual matches over teams such as Irving MacArthur, Pierce, and Berkner. In the regional team tournament, Scots took second place behind Wichita Falls High School in a close 10-8 match. The top four teams in regionals qualified for state, thus HP earned a trip to state.

At the state tournament in College Station the Scots finished eighth. In the opening match, HP lost a heartbreaker to San Antonio Lee 10-8. Then the Scots beat Clean Creek, Wichita Falls Rider, and Wichita Falls High, getting revenge for the loss in regionals.

Leading the team at state were captains Shane Reed and Denise Toole, along with Micheal Carney, Lyle "Flash" Sabo, Karen Neal and Sally Tucker.

On the outlook for district coach Kyle commented, "We've worked hard this fall, we should be ready for district in the spring."

SWIMMING

HP blue wave works hard, arrives on top

The H.P. Blue Wave had an excellent season led by Nancy Wylie, Allyson Parr, Bruce Hayes, and Kevin Meek as captains.

The girls were undefeated in dual meet competition and the boys had a fair season, being stifled by lack of swimmers. The more important meets of the year, the North-Zone Texas Interscholastic Swimming Coaches Association at H.P. and Tisca State in San Antonio, were very successful for the whole team. The participants who traveled to San Antonio were freshmen Katie Carson and Page Gunter, juniors Mike Heath, Karl Rathjen, and Nancy Schoeller, and seniors Bruce Hayes, Mike Crow, Nancy Wylie, and Allyson Parr. Hayes and Heath swept every event they entered, then dualed in the 500 freestyle finale, while Katie Carson was third in the 500 free, fourth in the 200 free, and fifth in the 100 breaststroke.

Other fine swimmers for the '80-'81 swimming Scots were Kim Carson, Michelle Williams, Kevin Meek, Reed Shawver, Jim Waugh, and Kip Sowden. Coach Sorrells should be proud of his outstanding team, which proved to be one of the best in the state of Texas.

Cruisin': Katie Carson swims quickly on with the finish line in sight.

"What was my time?": Michelle Williams awaits her results after another race.

Captains: Kevin Meek, Nancy Wylie, Bruce Hayes.

Scot golfers practice hard for new coach

Under the guidance of new coach, Coy Williams, the young and inexperienced H.P. golf team finished a tough fall season with an optimistic eye on the spring season. With at least a half a season experience under their belts, the Scots are prime contenders for the 10-5A district championship.

Coach Williams, former coach at Irving MacArthur for 17 years, is helped in the leadership duties by boy's captains Charlie Warren and Mitchell Cox, along with Margie Rush the girl's team captain. Rush commented, "Coach Williams has really helped the program progress. It's been hard since we're such a young team."

Some of the tournaments the boy's team competed in included the Sam Houston Invitational, the Western Ft. Worth Varsity Invitational, and the Highland Park Invitational. Along with district tournament, the boys will travel to Austin for the big Austin Invitational tournament.

The girl's team played in the Denton Invitational, the Highland Park Invitational, the Irving Invitational, and the R. L. Turner Invitational this fall. The highlight of the tourneys was a second place finish in the Irving Invitational. Because of no other established girl's golf teams in the district, the Scot lady golfers are assured a trip to the regional tournament along with a trip to Tyler for the Tyler Invitational this spring.

Despite the youth of the team, the H.P. golfers cannot be overlooked. They will be a contender this year and positively a strong contender next year.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics team reaches for perfect 10

The 1980-81 varsity gymnastics teams achieved a successful season against several tough competitors. The teams were captained by Sara Coln and Chuck Coronado. Along with these captains other seniors Ann Alford, John Ellisor, and Chris Lallier contributed to the successful season. The fighting scots competed against such schools as; L. D. Bell, Trinity, North Garland, and others.

The boys' team competed on the floor exercise, pommel horse, rings, vault, parallel bars, and the horizontal bar while the girls' team competed on the vault, uneven bars, balance beam and the floor exercise. Compulsory and optional routines were performed with expertise. Such routines were awarded 9's out of a perfect 10.

The boys' J.V. also competed during the season for valuable competition experience. The J.V. team members worked hard to get a chance at competing on the varsity team. Many of the team members looked very favorable for next year's varsity team.

Hours were spent in the gym with torn hands and sore muscles, yet proved to be very valuable. The scots worked hard to compete in five dual meets, and an invitational meet, district, regional and state competitions.

Sedgefield: Chuck Coronado works on his routine for the season.

Varsity: P. Haschke, J. Ellisor, D. Thorton, C. Laller, C. Coronado, J. Adams.

J.V.: C. Mauldin, T. Moore, J. Blain, K. Kieffer, C. Knight, E. Coln, A. George, C. Copeland.

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals make students play tough ball

Intramurals was a big hit again this year as several students competed individually and on teams. For each team, there was a captain and a manager.

Mrs. Kay Kyle and Mrs. Gwynne Manson ran the tournaments again this year. These two physical education teachers made up the draws, set up the times for the matches and familiarized all competitors of the rules.

Double elimination was used in basketball. In all four grades, over 100 girls participated. The 9th and 10th grade division was won by Emily Christian's team while Alison McClelland led her team to victory in the junior/senior race.

Ping pong intramurals provided early morning exercise for the competitors. The boy's 9th and 10th grade division was won by Long Dang, Jim Carraov placing second. Junior Mike Carney took the older division. Although no freshmen or sophomore girls competed, the Jr/Sr. group was a fight to the finish. Senior Heidi Shelton finally prevailed over Junior Karen Neal in the finals. All lucky winners get their pictures in the Highlander as reward for their victories.

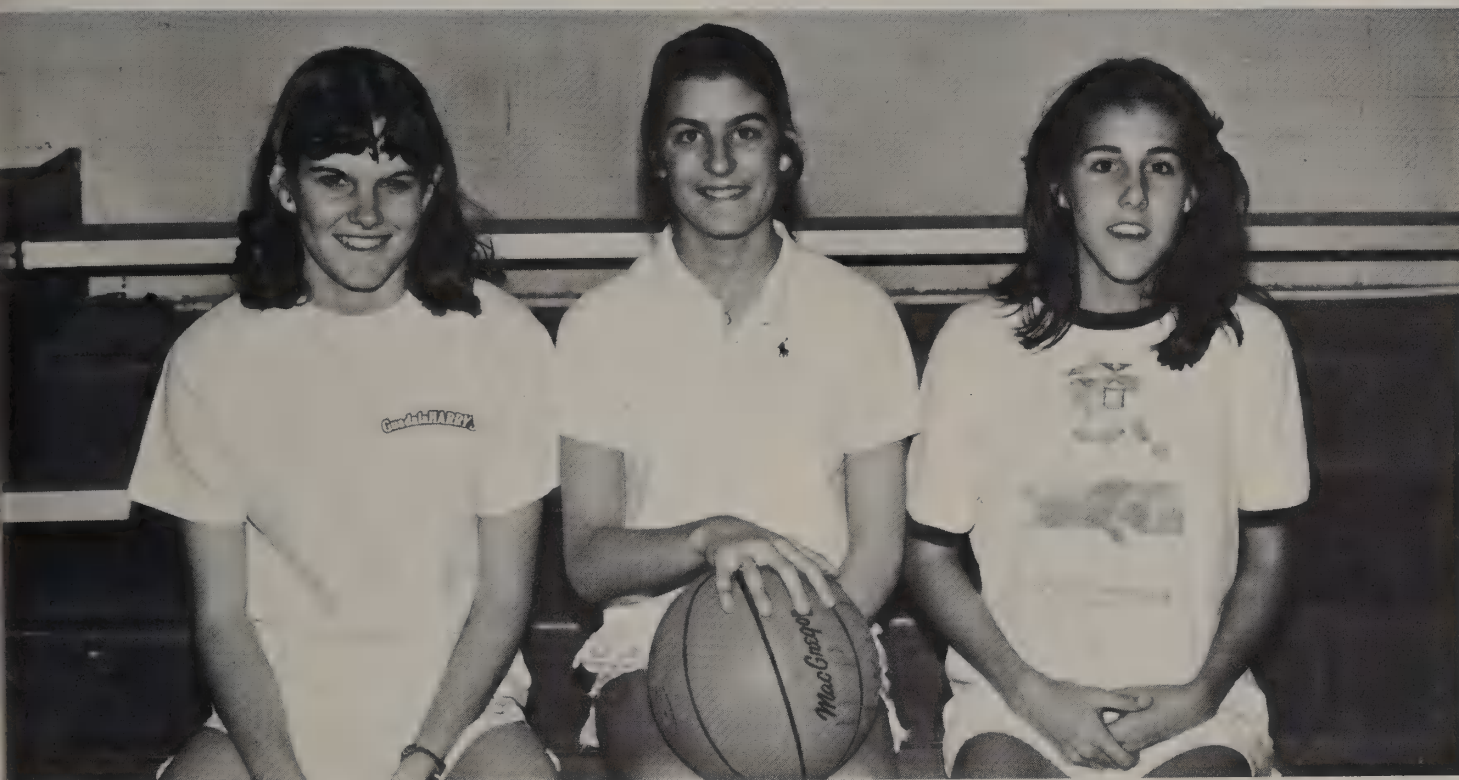

Pingpong Winners: M. Carney, H. Shelton, L. Dang

INTRAMURALS

B-ball runner-up: N. Truitt, E. Christian, D. Meadows.

First place: ROW ONE: E. Luce, L. List, M. Stuart. ROW TWO: M. Artley, K. Gott, V. Hart, A. McClelland. ROW THREE: M. Hardcastle, P. Mahaffey, M. Featherford.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

New schedule allots students longer lunches

The 1980-81 school year began with the elections of Murphy Martin as President, Walt Lightbourn as Vice-President, and Ellen Felvey as Secretary. Six seniors were then appointed to the executive committee. They were: David Shoemaker, Dan Tubb, Bobby Wertheimer, Kathy Raley, Melissa Stuart and Ellen Luce. In addition to these appointed Seniors were the Senior Representatives Al Hammack, Nancy Hill, and Chris Acton, replacing Hardin Ramey.

The year began with the Howdy Dance held in the new All-Sports facility with a Disc jockey providing the music. Preceding the dance the Super Scot Spy winners were announced. Among the winners were Don Rowe and Charlie Terrell.

As Homecoming approached the cheerleaders appealed to the Student Council to move the dance to Saturday and the Student Council responded.

The Homecoming dance was on Saturday, November 1, with the theme of "Ease on Down the Road."

The football game caravans were cancelled because of the bus strike but with the leadership of Margret Williams and the dedication of Scot fans game attendance was not hampered as students took to their cars.

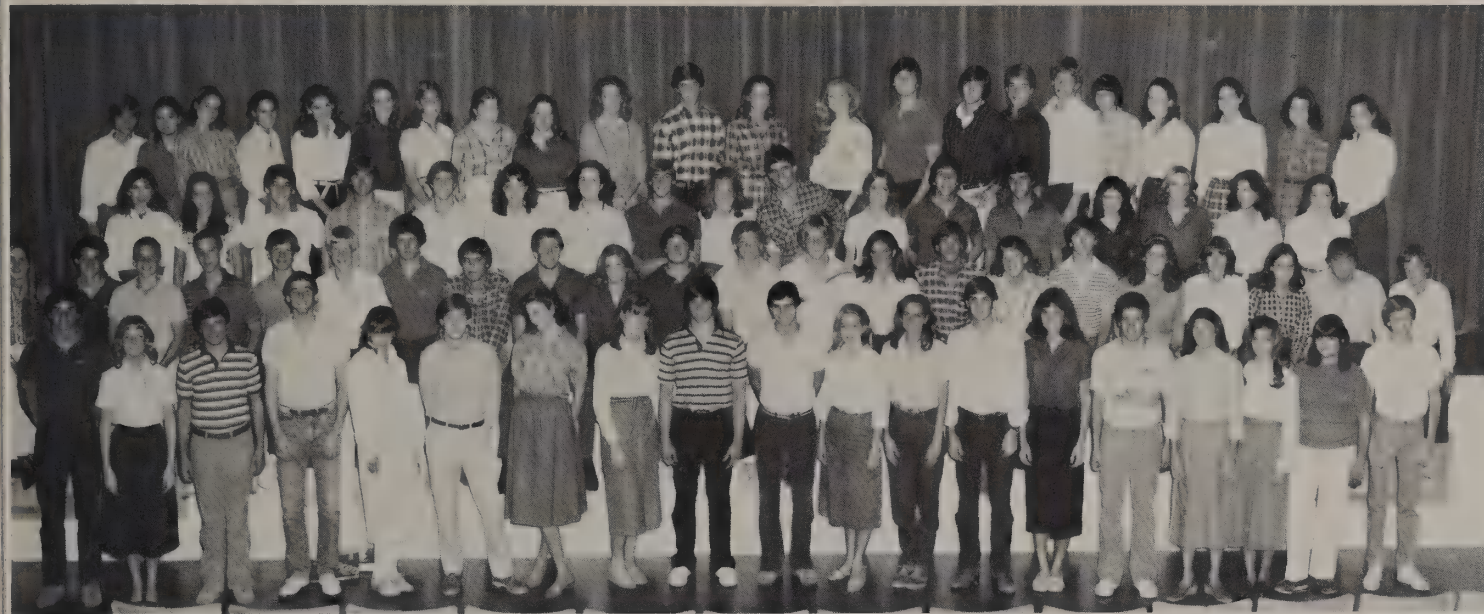

The Clan was a great success with the hard work of Ellen Felvey and the rest of the student council. The cover was designed by Becky Winslow, a senior.

The most important accomplishment of the Student Council was the new schedule with seven minute passing periods and Wednesday club days. Aside from the problems with conflicting clubs the schedules worked well, cutting down on tardies and allowing longer lunch periods for students.

$4.00 and $5.00: Walt Lightbourn sells a Homecoming ticket to Dave Reichert while Margret Williams and Coach Holmes supervise.

BAGPIPE

Bagpipe staffs combine fun, work, selling

Highland Park students kept up on all the local events by reading the 80-81 issues of The Bagpipe. Interested readers discovered witty columns written by Co-editors Margaret White and John Marks, as well as more serious articles dealing with school issues.

Inflation was felt by students when The Bagpipe's price went from 35 to 50 cents. The newspaper financially prospered under the leadership of Co-business managers Leslie List and Lee Touchstone. They along with their staff sold ads to businesses and students.

Although Bagpipers worked hard, they also had their share of fun. Dinners were planned every Thursday before publications. The annual Christmas and end of the year parties were celebrated with The Highlander staff.

Preparations for the 1981 Highlander began when co-editors Cathy Fuller and Tricia Buddendorf attended a journalism clinic held at S.M.U. and sponsored by Taylor Publishing Company. While attending the clinic, they learned the journalistic skills to help them lead the 60 member editorial staff this year.

The editorial staff met each Wednesday night at Tricia's house to work on assigned copies. Cathy and Tricia made sure each group met their deadlines so that the Highlander would be completed on schedule.

Stacey Jordan and Marsa Munroe were close at hand picking up tips so they would be prepared as co-editors for next year's yearbook. Photographers Houston Holmes and Anne McConnell worked diligently taking numerous pictures.

Business managers, Vicky Hart and Alison McClelland headed the 35-member business staff. They made hundreds of phone calls and knocked on many doors to sell a record-breaking 118 pages of ads. The majority of the buyers were local businesses and parents of graduating seniors.

Although publishing the Highlander was hard work, staff members found room to have a good time. There was the annual Christmas party with gag gifts and the publication picnic in May.

Miss Katherine Carpenter finished her third year as Highlander sponsor while business assistant, Miss Gladys Bradshaw, filled her time keeping track of Highlander sales and ads.

Pondering editors: Cathy Fuller and Tricia Buddendorf contemplate copies.

Honor Society spreads light of knowledge

The National Honor Society has been promoting academic excellence at Highland Park High School for more than fifty years. This fall 17 new members were admitted to the already 37 member strong society. They were: Debby Reichert, Kim Gott, Tom Summers, Warren Sumner, Kelly Dodd, Christie Nichols, Al Hammack, Don Rowe, Nancy Saunders, George Lancaster, Sally Barrier, Trafton Bogart, Steve Burger, Rob Moerschell, Jennifer Hunt, Cindy McLane, and Melissa Stuart.

The new members were welcomed with a dinner at Vicky Hart's estate. Afterwards there was deer hunting on the back lawn. Four twelve point bucks were taken. In addition, several members were entrapped in a secret compartment in the study.

Club officers are Houston Holmes, president; Shirley Miller, vice-president; Ellen Luce, secretary; and Debby Sharpe, treasurer. Along with Miss Catherine Orr, club sponsor, they intend to advance the process of learning at Highland Park.

Society members welcomed the Christmas season with a caroling party. They sang carols at Treemont Retirement Home and then proceeded to take over a nearby Mexican restaurant. Club bouncer Eric Johnson led the onslaught in which three waiters received severe head injuries and two waitresses along with cook are still missing. With more parties planned club members intend to keep the year interesting.

Membership in this society is based on leadership, ability, character, scholarship, and school service. To be eligible for membership a student must maintain a 7.0 grade point average for the preceding year. The nominees are then ranked by their teachers on a scale from one to eight, and students receiving all sevens or better are admitted.

In the spring, the annual dinner and swimming party welcomed junior members. At the Honors Day assembly the society presented the coveted Blanket Award to one boy and one girl for outstanding leadership, and achievement in academics and extra curricular activities.

LEO CLUB

Although the long football season curtailed most activities during the first part of the year, the Leo Club members had a full schedule during the latter part of the year.

The annual Leo Club bowling tournament started the year off. In early March, the Leo Club Dance was held at the City Club. The dance, organized by the board members, was attended by all of the club members, as well as several former members.

The Leo Club also sold fire extinguishers and held a garage sale to raise money. The garage sale, an annual event, usually helps to finance Leo Club events, such as the end of the year party. The club enjoyed an exciting year.

BOY'S FCA

Growing much larger in membership this year was the boy's chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The group achieved their goals of increased help to better their community.

The principal fund raising project was selling programs at football games. Profits were then used for movies, tapes, and books to expand the FCA library.

This year the group sponsored guest speakers which came and spoke about Christian influence in athletics. During other bi-monthly meetings, the members discussed their relationships with Christ.

The 1980-1981 FCA officers included: Kit Case, President; Robert Martin, Vice-President; Manning Shannon, Secretary; Steve Burgher, Treasurer; and it is sponsored by basketball coach Bo Snowden.

FCA

Girl's Fellowship of Christian Athletes, sponsored by Mindy Simmons, started off with an obstacle that it had to get over, which was the new club schedule. The competition of clubs was immense but the organization tackled this problem and resulted with a good group of members. Officers were elected in the fall including: Leslie List, president; Leigh Ann Sherer, vice-president; Melissa Stuart, secretary-treasurer; and Caroline Sharpley, chaplain.

The club enjoyed meetings every two weeks with important speakers, and interesting topics. This was the fourth year for this club and it has grown despite bad odds; it looks like it has finally made it.

Spirit raised by pep girls, signs, posters

Summer workcrews started the Spirit Committee off with enthusiasm which carried on throughout the year.

Spirit Committee heads Catherine Boren, Carolyn Floyd and Mimi Calder along with sponsor Mrs. Gynne Manson took charge by running meetings and workcrews to decorate the gym.

The annual fund raising sale of bumper stickers help to pay for the paper, paints, streamers, balloons and tape used to decorate for pep rallies.

With the grand-opening of the new stadium came the responsibility of preparing for the pre-game celebration. Spirit Committee members spent hours decorating the stadium and party room to honor the occasion.

As the football team knocked off successive opponents in both regular season and playoff games, the Spirit Committee worked with the cheerleaders to help support the Scots. In order to keep the school spirit at an all time high, the Spirit Committee took on such projects as selling blue and gold pom-poms and making signs to post around the school.

MILITARY SERVICE CLUB

Military Service Club was in its second year at Highland Park High School. The club, sponsored by Mr. Dave McElwee, was aimed at students interested in the United States' services.

The group heard speakers and saw movies concerned with the national defenses and military academics. The club took field trips to the area naval air stations, including Carswell Air Force Base. One of the jobs performed by the club members was to raise and lower the flag in front of the school every day. The Military Service Club enjoyed its year and looks forward to many more exciting and interesting projects next year.

SPEECH TEAM

Trophies spell success, TV talent shown

Participation in Forensics fostered skill in oral interpretation while it developed confidence, poise and enthusiasm among its members.

The speech team attended 8 interscholastic tournaments, including the Texas Forensic Association State Tournament and the National Forensic League District Tournament. The team placed students in finals at every tournament. Sixteen Forensic team members earned membership in the National Forensic League by accumulating enough points through participation in tournament events. Janay Ferguson, Doug Wright, Mike Meadows, Jeff Blain, and Dana Jackson qualified for the state speech tournament by placing in the final rounds of competition.

The Forensic Club hosted a speech tournament at the beginning of the year which attracted 24 schools and raised money for the team's entry fees. Forensic Club members were in charge of running the various events, time keeping, and tabulating points. Another fund raising project was the selling of Christmas ornaments. This money will also pay for entry fees and scholarships for summer workshops.

KEY CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Jimmy Lee, the members of the 1980-81 Key Club continued selling mugs for the third year in a row. Club officers have decided to make mug selling an annual tradition for freshman members. Members performed their service duties by holding Key Club seminars, the Key Club leadership breakfast, marching for dimes, and by attending the Kiwanis Club quilting bee.

Members also enjoyed singing songs, saying the Pledge of Allegiance, watching Key Club films, and having social mixers with W. T. White members. President John Marks says, "We have so much fun that I get the giggles just thinking about it."

This years officers were: John Marks, President; Paul Paez, Vice-President; Murphy Martin, Secretary; and Houston Holmes, Treasurer.

HI-LITES

Hi-Lite dance provides gifts for children

Another year with Hi-Lites, the organization for all girls, opened in August with the Big-Little Sister picnic.

The new high schoolers became acquainted with the older girls as they enjoyed food, songs, skits, and cheers. Entertainment included songs sung by David Hawes, Anne McConnell, Mike Crow, and Tom Breedlove, and a skit by John Marks and Albert Hammack. The evening came to a close with the introduction of the cheerleaders and the Hi-Lite officers.

Mothers, daughters, and teachers were invited to the Hi-Lite Tea, September 28, at the home of Margaret Williams.

Girls got the chance to invite boys to the "Hi-Lites Hoedown" held on October 4th. The proceeds from the dance benefited underprivileged children by providing them Christmas presents they otherwise would not receive. Hi-Lites members participated in other welfare projects such as decorating and filling stockings for hospitalized children and giving food to needy families.

Meetings were held every other Wednesday and provided a variety of entertainment. The programs included a style show, an exercise demonstration, and many interesting speakers.

Hi-Lite members chose a Hi-Lite King at the dance on February 7th. The nominees were: Kit Case, Albert Hammack, John Marks, Murphy Martin, Tommy Summers, and Don Tubbs were crowned.

Mrs. Linda Raya and Mrs. Pam Busby sponsored the club and aided the officers in planning events for the year.

LADS AND LASSIES

L&L members stay busy with many concerts

Lads and Lassies choir had a very busy year. Performing in concerts and trying out for various contests occupied most of their time.

Officers of the choir were Scott Milliorn, President; Cha Cha Symonds, Vice-President; Debby Sharpe, Recording Secretary; Amy Taulbee, Corresponding Secretary; Debbie Reichert and Stephanie Frnka, Treasurers; Anne McConnell, Historian; Bruce Curll and Greg White, Librarians; and Ross Carlton, Riser Chairman.

Lads and Lassies entertained many groups with concerts, including two at Highland Park Methodist Church and one for the Park Cities Rotary Club.

Several people were picked by Mr.

Waugh to audition for All-Region choir. The top 12 in each section were selected to the All-Region choir. The top eight advanced to All-Area auditions, where the top four in each section got to try out for All-State. Selected to the All-State choir were Mary Mills and Paul Griffin. Amy Taulbee was chosen first alternate.

Lads and Lassies was very involved with the musical, Flower Drum Song. Costuming principal roles were Karen Cummings as Mei Li, Scot Sigler as Wang, Cindy McLane as Linda Low, and D. Hawes as Sammy Fong. Flower Drum Song was presented March 4-7 to packed houses.

Lads and Lassies finished the year with their annual spring concert and banquet.

REVELAIRES

The Revelaires choir had a busy schedule during the 1980-81 school year. Officers Shannon Peters, President; Emily Roberts, Vice-President; Laurie Brown, Secretary; Kelly Franklin, Treasurer; Amy Marlowe, Historian; and Librarians Lisa Dolan and Barbara Armstrong led the choir through many concerts and fund raising events.

During the summer of 1980, many Revelaires members participated in the making of the movie "Skyward," which was filmed at HPHS. This garnered lots of money for the treasury.

In the fall, Revelaires performed a concert for about 100 people at a local nursing home. Also during the year, choir members sold candy sticks, M & M's, and popcorn. Around Christmas time, Revelaires sold procelain bells used for decoration.

Also in December, Revelaires enjoyed its annual Christmas caroling followed by a party at Sutton Stephen's home.

As 1981 rolled around, choir members were occupied with musical rehearsals and practicing for the February 28 UIL contest. Many members of Revelaires had parts in this year's musical Flower Drum Song. Caroline Sharpley had a principal role as Madame Liang.

In the spring, Revelaires performed a spring concert. Many juniors and seniors also participated in the trip to Galveston for a contest which combined fun and competition.

HIGHLANDAIRES

Highlandaires raise money for spring fun

The 1980-81 Highlandaires choir got off to a great start. They were led by officers Kevin Hays, President; Beth Turner, Vice President; Mari Davis, Secretary; Mary Gibbons, Treasurer; Connie Shannon, Librarian; and Diane Brandes, Historian.

During the school year, Highlandaires sold many things to raise money for choir functions. These included candy sticks, sour balls, M & M's, popcorn, and Christmas decorations. The money that was raised by selling these things went toward the musical, Flower Drum Song, and also toward the trip to Galveston in the spring that juniors and seniors went on. In order to go to Galveston, choir members had to raise a certain amount of money and enter the UIL competition in either solo or ensemble.

In December, Highlandaires went caroling and had its annual Christmas party afterwards. Choir members exchanged gag gifts at the party.

As the new year started, Highlandaires busily prepared for the musical and for the UIL competition on February 28.

Competitions, fund raising, busied band

The 1980-81 Highlander Band under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Jordan began the school year marching at football games in Texas Stadium and then became the first band to march in the new Highlander Stadium while they also helped boost spirit by playing at the Scot pep rallies.

In the fall, they competed in the U.I.L. Marching Band Contest and the Hurst Euless Bedford Contest. Margaret Wright, Jon Weil and Paul Johnson advanced to All-Region. The band also made their annual trip to Saludo, Texas for the gathering of the Clans, a Scottish festival. Members sponsored their activities by selling cookbooks and candy. The band Christmas dance was held on December 19.

The activities for the spring agenda were the U.I.L. Concert Band Contest and a trip to Disney World in Florida. Many members also attended the State Solo and Ensemble Contest. Major officers included: President Robert Lyle; Drum Major Robert Moore; Lassie Commander Angela Jordan; and Flag-Corps Captain Kim Keany.

THESPIANS

New members initiated with skits, candles

Members of the prestigious drama club, Thespians, experienced a successful year with many new members. The club's officers, President, Doug Wright; Vice-President, Shannon Peters; Secretary/Treasurer, Catherine Boren; Clerk, Ellen Felvey; Historian, Bruce Curll; Parliamentarian, Briggs Brower; and Underclassman Rep., Dana Jackson opened the eyes of the new members to new areas of the theatre.

The December banquet was held at the home of Catherine Boren where new members were initiated by skits, "improvs," and the serious Thespian candlelight initiation. Also, in December, a select number of Thespians ventured to the International Thespian Convention in Saginaw, Texas. Workshops were held and the Thespians saw different versions of familiar plays. Other Thespian activities included the annual Thespian show, visits to professional productions, Christmas shows, and hosting a number of people who know the field of drama very well.

LASSIES

Girls perform during games, competitions

The 1980-1981 Lassies had a very busy year. Their time was occupied with playing at all football games and pep rallies, making guest appearances, and competing in various contests.

Officers for the year were Angela Jordan, Lassie Commander; Maria Sogandares, Pipe Major; Susan Hay and Holly McGuire, Pipe Sergeants; and Shannon Houston, Dance Major.

The Lassies competed in Scottish game competitions all over the state. The major competition was held in November in Salado, Texas and was called the Gathering of the Clans. Shannon Houston, Mary Moore, Kimberly Culbertson, and Margaret Wright competed in the dance events, and Maria Sogandares and Holly McGuire entered the pipe competition.

In February, several Lassies entered UIL competition with a pipe ensemble. They included Susan Hay, Angela Jordan, Maria Sogandares, Holly McGuire, Rhonda Gregg, and Shannon Houston. Those who earned a one in the February Regional competition advanced to the state competition held after school was dismissed.

The Lassies also made several guest appearances during the year. They performed at such places as Bassett, Neiman-Marcus, and the Sales Street Fair.

COMMODITIES CLUB

The Commodities Club is an exclusive senior investment organization primarily concerned with purchasing stocks and keeping members abreast of current market conditions.

The club, now in its second year of operation has grown from a small group of diligent students to 45 investors. In October the club purchased two stocks and quickly profited thereafter. In addition to enjoying a speaker from a local stock brokerage, the club has also held a profitable fund raising event.

Anxiously anticipating the end of the school year, the officers John Lee, President; Mary Wallace, Vice President; and Paul Bass, Treasurer, are making arrangements to divide up the profits among the members.

Literary club plans parties for holidays

Quill and Scroll is a literary honor society that is supervised by Mrs. Rayburn Meyers. It consists of those students who have served on the publications staff for at least one semester, obtained a recommendation from their sponsor and are in the the upper third of their class.

This year's new officers are: President, Margaret White, Vice-President, Vicky Hart, Secretary, Nancye Saunders, Treasurer, Cathy Fuller, Publicity, Tricia Buddendorf, Entertainment Chairman, Melissa Stuart.

At the Annual Publications Picnic new members Houston Holmes, Doug Wright, and Kathy Raley received their membership cards and pins.

The annual Christmas Dinner and Valentine's Party were a great success.

AFS

Once again the American Field Service club organized the extremely popular Valentine's carnation sale. With good luck in their favor, the carnations were distributed on Friday the 13th.

The club soared to new heights with the membership reaching 300, making it one of the biggest clubs at HP. All of the members worked hard to support Frederic Bonnin, the AFS student from France.

This year the club was led by President, Doug Stuart; Vice President, Ty Burks; Secretary, Carolyn Floyd; and Historian, Debby Sharpe. The leaders strived to make it a good year for Fred and help him establish many memories to take home.

HP English teachers Mrs. Pam Bush, Miss Cathy Orr, and Mrs. Priscilla Fish sponsored AFS. They also worked hard and helped the officers complete another successful year.

AFS hosted international students from other area high schools on their annual International Day in October. The students visited classes to get a feeling of how HP differed from the school that they attended, sitting in on different subjects. A barbecue was given in their honor and the day proved to be fun for all.

AFS students reach all-time high of 300.

Club builds understanding for enterprise

With ■ new sponsor and many new ideas for fund raising activities and meetings Future Business Leaders of America began the 1980-1981 school year.

The purpose of the club was to build a better understanding of the American business system and to get students more involved in confidence building activities.

This year officers were President

Chuck Coronado, Vice-President Nick Valentino, Treasurer Ann Harkness, Historian Alex Roeber, and Secretaries Linda Meek and Laura Fields.

Club members competed in various contests and raised funds, keeping a close eye on the stock market with a mind to invest their money. Members also held a Christmas bake sale and a Mexican food bake sale.

DECA

The 35 career-oriented students of DECA learned about marketing and distributive education with on-the-job training. The new H.P. Distributive Education Clubs of America sponsor, Mrs. Sheree Davis, assisted members with any problems experienced on the job. The majority of the students worked at wholesale, retail and service centers within the community.

The group earned money for their annual Employer-Employee Banquet in the spring. The spirit button sale helped to raise support for the football team and was a big success. Members also sold candy and the Bagpipe and DECA jointly sold bumper stickers. Plus as a special project the club made buttons for the 1956 S.M.U. class reunion.

DECA officers were President David Triebel, Vice-President Pam Seitz, Secretary Gilly Harris, Treasurer Tony Waldrop, Parliamentarian Mark Drinkwater, and Reporter George Lancaster.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders Support Teams, Athletic Events

With the intent of incorporating new ideas into H.P. tradition, the freshman, B-team, and Varsity cheerleaders attended the SMU Cheerleading camp and generated enough spirit to earn the coveted spirit stick at the end of each day's activities.

Varsity cheerleaders Lynn Hankinson, Plack Carr, Amy Baker, Chris Lallier, Shirley Miller, Tommy Summers, Lane Newsom, and John Ellisor mingled their talents to bring twists of variety such as gymnastics and mini-tramp stunts, pom pom routines, a 50's pep rally, and new entrances to the Friday morning pep rallies. New sponsors Mrs. Cathy Morris and Mr. Mike Mastandrea brought superb organization as well as new ideas and stunts to the Varsity group.

Sponsored by Mrs. Laurel Arnold and helping to sell key chains and bumper stickers, were Freshman cheerleaders Ann Barrier, Anne Woodham, Teri Rudolph, Christie Carr, Dinah Miller, Rosie West, Laura Anderson, and Haden Stone.

The B-team cheerleaders organized girls to support the JV players in addition to raising spirit for the JV team. Mrs. Judy Newell led the B-team group of Margaret Shelmire, Kee Crockett, Michele Coker, Amy Sexton, Elizabeth Thompson, and Libby Bernet.

FIELD and STREAM

Club members sell placemats to buy canoes

Field and Stream, sponsored by Mr. Jimmy Lee and Ronald Van Hooser began this year with a trip to Camp Wisdom for a field day and followed this by a weekend of camping at Ellen Felvey's farm.

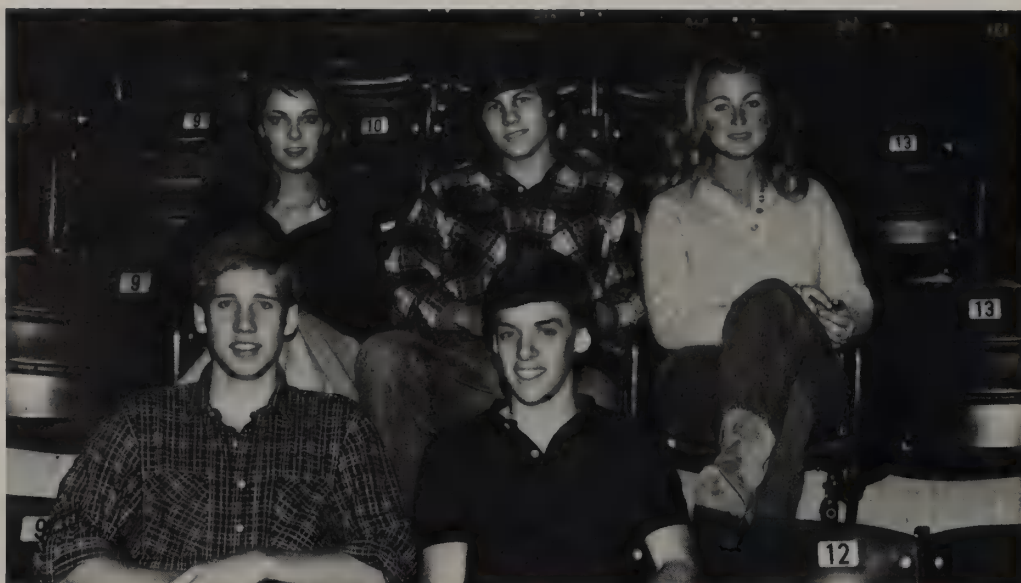

The thirty members are led by officers: Pat McCabe, President, Alton Jones, Vice President, Annette LaRue, Secretary, and Bruce Lankford, Treasurer.

To earn money for badly needed canoes, the members sold Christmas placemats which proved to be a tremendous success bringing in over three hundred dollars.

MU ALPHA THETA

Mu Alpha Theta is a math honorary society organized in order for math-oriented students to compete against each other for national awards and scholarships.

Co-Presidents Kim Keany and Nam Dang, Treasurer Bill Kilgore head the club's seventeen members during the 1980-1981 school year. A trip to Eastfield was planned earlier this year but was canceled as a result of not enough participation from other schools.

Kim Keany, along with other heads of Mu Alpha Theta "made plans to go to the Rice Competition" which was held between February 20 and 21.

The club also planned to attend the Mu Alpha Theta Competition held for all members of this club, basing their winnings on a national basis.

GUITAR CLUB

Classical, jazz, rock interest club members

The Guitar Club continued strumming in the seventh year of their existence. Dr. Lawrence Puckett sponsored the musicians.

Several of the strummers brought their own guitars to the bi-monthly meetings. Club members enjoyed a variety of music including classical, jazz, and rock. The "pickers" worked on their techniques and tried new notes on the world of music.

The twenty-five members were under the guidance of the talented president Matt McShane, vice-president Lincoln Apeland, treasurer Forrest Collier, and secretary Ellen Sledge.

The club shared with the student body their talents this year with their traditional spring assembly.

RECORDS AND TAPES

The Records and Tapes Club had a busy year planning and participating in various activities. In the fall they held the second annual John Lancaster Volleyball Tournament. They followed this with the Mason Zimmerman Softball Classic and the Alex Miller Invitational Fishing Tournament. The money made from these activities went for a flag for the new stadium and also for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Records and Tapes Club members are supporters of the Texas Rangers, The Dallas Blackhawks and various wrestling matches. All of these are attended sometime during the school year. The club members also have numerous speakers and in the fall they took a trip to a local radio station.

Sponsor of this year's club is woodshop teacher Mr. Mike Atteberry and this year's fearless leaders were Rob Moerschell, Ernest Beecherl, Dennis Mullinix, John Marks, Steve Bullington, Mike Crow, and Tom Breedlove.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish club joins PASF, tastes recipes

Under the direction of Miss Karen Thomas, the Spanish Club members increased their knowledge of the Spanish language and its cultures.

Headed by President Debby Sharpe, other officers included Vice President, Chris Acton; Secretary, Anne Nash; Treasurer, Ellen Luce; Publicity, Stacy Shannon; and Program Chairmen, Rebekah Nix and Laurie Porth.

During their Wednesday meetings, the Club enjoyed the appearance of a Flamenco dancer as well as the guitar playing of Dr. Lawrence Puckett. Additionally, the club joined the Pan American Student Forum — a state organization which offers benefits and opportunities for the Spanish Club.

Other activities included the 3rd Annual Guacamole Cook-off in which club members prepared their favorite recipes of the avacado dish for judging. In the homes of Debby Sharpe and Rebekah Nix, breakfast was prepared for the club members before School. An atmosphere was created which enhanced further development of the members' abilities to speak and understand Spanish.

SAILING CLUB

Sponsored by Coach Wayne Johnson, the Highland Park Sailing Club experienced an increase in membership as a result of last year's success.

Meetings this year were aimed at explaining the sailboat and the art of sailing to those new to the sport. Although the basics were emphasized, students were also given the opportunity to participate in regattas and other off-shore outings.

Club officers Murray Smith, Amanda Foote, Susie Beilharz, Dina Jones, Cari Cheesborough, Lee Keele, Ann Coleman, and David Hoover got things "under sail" with a party at Murray's house.

Films, guest speakers, and demonstrations helped make up the rest of the club's agenda.

GERMAN CLUB

Club members attend festival, hear speakers

Members of the German Club this year participated in various activities to further their knowledge of the German language and culture. Students attended a German festival at Brookhaven College in the fall, where they experienced many aspects of German culture. At the festival there was dancing and music along with a large buffet of German food.

At meetings, club members played German games, heard speakers, and saw films about German culture. The members also visited a local German restaurant.

Officers David Frase, President; Jonathan Ladd, Vice-President; and Ellen Franklin, Secretary-Treasurer; planned meetings and activities such as the annual basketball game with the French Club. Miss Evelyn Lehman served as club sponsor.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club opened the 1980-1981 school year by electing its officers. The following members were named to the Executive Committee: Sarah Carr as President, Susan Reed as Vice-President, Carrie Freeman as Secretary, and Mike Holt. Others appointed were Holly McIntire as Program Chairman and Erin Alexander as Social Chairman.

The officers arranged for several interesting speakers to present programs to the club. A representative from Alitalia Airlines showed a film on Italy. A docent from the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts showed slides and spoke on Pompeii and Roman life. A basketball game against the French Club was also planned. In the spring, members attended the annual Roman banquet, and welcomed new sponsor Mrs. Elaine Clark.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Photographers enter contests, have feasts

The Photography Club began the new year with a different sort of membership requirements: The officers: President Bonnie Wynne, Vice-president Jane Brenner, Secretary Elizabeth Molsen, decided that since there was so much money left over from previous year's dues and assemblies, club membership would be based on ability instead of membership dues. The club sponsor Miss Fries gave the members some good ideas for money making and a chance to win honors for their creative photos. Miss Fries had collected entry blanks and received mail concerning photo contests at the city, metro, state and national levels. Many club members entered these contests. The contests ranged from black and white print to color portfolios including matting, labels, and explanations of film usage and camera settings. Sophomore Kevin Hays said, "The club is moving right along. We have started doing things instead of just sitting around talking." The Photo Club celebrated the holiday season this year with a "feast of fattening but tasty Christmas pastries," according to Elizabeth Molsen.

Club President Bonnie Wynne was extremely excited to see so many interested freshmen come to the meeting. Bonnie said, "I could not believe it because almost all of the club are freshmen, last year I think we had five and I had to recruit them." "I feel sure that if we can get some of these freshmen down in our photo lab then we can keep up their interest and hopefully the membership of the club will also increase," commented Miss Fries. The Photo Club hoped to work in a few Saturday field trips to keep themselves up on the latest techniques.

TARTAN

The Tartan is the school literary magazine. It deals with the submissions of poetry, short stories, essays, artwork, and photography. There are two portions of the Tartan, the Literary Board and the Art Board.

The Chairman of the Literary Board was Carr Shelton; the co-chairman was Kim Keany; Treasurer, Briggs Brower; Secretaries, Constance Adams and Eddie Tatum. This year the quality of the work turned in was unusually high.

There were two portions to the Art Board; the Illustration Board and the Art Board. The Chairman was Becky Winslow and the Co-chairman was Marsa Munroe. The Illustration Board illustrates for the poetry turned in. The Art Board chooses which individual art work goes in.

The Tartan Boards met once a week after school and at club period. They sold donuts and received private donations to fund the magazine. The final decisions were made in January and the Tartan came out in March at Open House, to the delight of expectant Staff members, students and parents.

FRESHMEN

Round and round: Frances Blackwell and Susan Martin push the merry-go-round faster as Kit Canon, Laura Moerschell and Melinda Marshall balance.

The new Scots spent exciting summers anticipating the big step up into High School. Most Freshmen adjusted quickly to the new atmosphere of High School life. The Howdy Dance kicked off the year with Fulton Murray and Frances Blackwell being chosen as friendliest Freshmen. During Howdy Week, Super Scot spies John Rutledge and Laura Duvall evasively hid their identity until the deductive minds of Amy Taylor and Christie Carter discovered them. Amy and Christie were awarded with 20 free hamburgers at a local fast food franchise.

Representing the Freshmen as Student Council reps were David Nichols and Emily Christian. The Freshmen of 1980 were also involved in many sports. Mike Lucas, Frances Blackwell, and Amy Taylor all participated in varsity track.

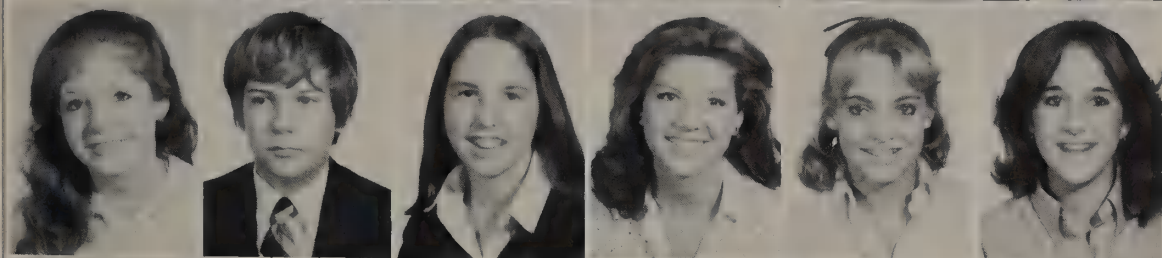

The Freshman Football team fought a hard season with the help of the eight spirited cheerleaders, Laura Apeland, Terry Rudolph, Dinah Miller, Rosie West, Ann Worsham, Ann Barrier, Christie Carter, and Haden Stone.

SOPHOMORES

No cheating please: Richard Tuma checks out Rob Holmes' hand while Kevin Hays diverts his attention.

For the sophomores, the summer of 1980 was full of family vacations, summer camp, odd jobs, driving tests, and just having a blast. Some took vacations to Europe, such as Duncan Bremner, Karen Kessler, and Elizabeth Murray, while King Hall and Rob Holmes headed down to Puerto Vallarta. Charlotte Martin went to camp in Padre Island and John Vandermeer was a counselor in Colorado. Rising stars, Connie Shannon and Julie Lancaster, were extras in "Crisis at Central High" which was filmed in Dallas in June.

When summer came to a close everyone was ready to get back into the swing of things. The B-Team Cheerleaders, Libby Bernet, Michelle Coker, Kee Crow, Amy Sexton, Margaret Shelmire, and Elizabeth Thompson were prepared to get the football spirit up. Leigh Bywaters and Robert Turner represented the sophomores as Student Council reps. Two sophs, King Hall and Richard Tuma, played varsity football, while Dave Reichert and Todd Mack were on the varsity basketball team, and Chris Williams was on the volleyball varsity. During Howdy Week, Super Scot Spies Long Dang and Elizabeth New were discovered by Allyson Smith and Todd Hayman. Ginger Kenyon and John Poston were selected friendliest sophs at the Howdy Dance.

Super studs: Tough looking class officers Gigi Alexander, Craig Bailey, Caren Cain, and Sally O'Connell seriously consider Jr.-Sr. prom plans.

The Junior Class, having proven themselves as Upperclassmen, were widely involved in school activities this year. Boasting 21 varsity football players and 46 spirit committee members, the Juniors were highly involved in Scot Spirit. There were also many other Varsity team members, not to mention extensive participation in intramurals. Representing the class in Student Council were Electra Thomas and Jonathon Ladd. The class officers were Craig Bailey; president; Sally O'Connell, vice-president; Caren Cain, treasurer; and Gigi Alexander, secretary. Friendliest members of the Junior Class were Caren Cain, Bob Berry, and Jim Yoder. Posing as traditional Super Scot Spies were juniors Duncan Haggart and Kristi Spikes. This year's musical lead was filled by junior Karen Cummings, playing Mei Ling.

Over the summer, the Junior Class worked, traveled, and played; not necessarily in that order. traveling to Jekyll Island, Georgia were Juniors Marsa Munroe, Sally O'Connell, Lida Defferari, Mona Craycroft, Jane Brennef, Richard Reece, Jimmy McMurrey, Amy Duncan, and Fred Thrower. Also, several juniors have led to the Orient with the Highland Park Presbyterian Church.

Still other juniors attended summer camp. Stacy Jordan, Susan Reed, and Beth Turner went to Mystic. Ann Stansbury, Laura Howard, Mary Van Ellis, Martha Adam, Mary Washburne went to Nakanawa in Tennessee. Jonathan Ladd, Brad Beutel, Rob Clements went to Andover for summer sessions. Juniors, all in all, had a great year to follow their great summer.

Officers take new approach to Sr. activities

SENIORS

In late August the halls of H.P. were invaded by the 383 Seniors of the Class of 1981, who anticipated college applications, graduation, and adjusting to the reinstated semester system. Everyone showed symptoms of Senioritis, that dreaded, incurable disease that hits Seniors annually.

The school year started off on a happy note with Laurie Collins and Walt Lightbourn chosen as "Friendliest Seniors" at the Howdy Dance on September 26.

Due to their high scores on PSAT-NMSQT, 13 Seniors were recognized as Semi-Finalists and 12 others were awarded with Letters of Commendation by the National Merit Council. A candlelight ceremony was the setting for the induction of 17 new members into the National Honor Society in September. Out of 383 Seniors 95 enrolled in Advanced Placement Courses. Doug Wright was awarded the National Council of Teachers of English Achievement award for his talent in writing.

37 Senior Men led the 1981 Fighting Scots to the State Semi-Final football playoffs in December. In February six of the Seniors were awarded football scholarships to major universities in the United States.

Many ambitious Seniors discovered that summer vacation was as much work as it was play. The tightening economy sent Senior Scots in search of various summertime vocations.

Apparel shops proved a popular alternative in the quest for cash. Several Senior women, Stacy Shannon, Kathy Raley, Nancye Saunders, Debbie Reichert, and Cynthia Norton worked at local boutiques, while Chris Acton worked in a men's clothing store.

Other Scots found opportunities to make money and work on their tans simultaneously. Working at the University Park Pool were Stephanie Frnka, Shannon Peters, and Anne McConnell, while Denise Toole and Mike Steele gave tennis lessons to children. The most unusual occupation, by far, proved to be the window-washing endeavor of Al Hammack and Cliff Alexander.

Thoughts roll away

Ernesto: Paul Paez and his bongo drum rest after the Super Show.

Many Seniors set out on adventurous trips to all corners of the world. Margaret Williams and Ty Burks went to the Orient with the Highland Park Presbyterian Church choir. Shelley Branch went to Israel and Switzerland for vacation purposes. Melissa Stuart and Lee Touchstone ventured to Hawaii and had fun in the sun.

Not all Seniors had to leave the United States for a vacation. Tricia Buddendorf and Cathleen Kern went to Aspen, Colorado to just get away from it all. Many stayed in Texas and went to camp. Wendy Weber, Pam Mahaffey, and Kathy Raley were at camp. Although they worked, it was a good vacation from everyday routines.

On the run: Ellen Luce sprints down the field for a senior girls' touchdown.

Ambitions and Talent are two qualities that the 1981 Seniors did not lack. In addition to having one of the highest Grade Point Average years, they also showed ability in other areas.

"Pygmalion" was produced by the Senior class in November with Doug Wright, Ellen Felvey, David Hawes, and Catherine Boren chosen as leads. The cast and crew members included 84 seniors.

The choral department staged "Flower Drum Song." Seniors David Hawes and Cindy McLane portrayed lead roles in the Spring production. Other achievements made by choir members included Senior Paul Griffin who became a member of the UIL All-State-Choir.

Doug Wright, Catherine Boren, and Mike Meadows qualified for the TFA State competition in Speech.

WEIR'S IS ... LOOKING TO THE FUTURE ...

Brad Weir, Class of '82

Brooks Weir, Class of '84

WHILE BUILDING ON THE PAST!

We at Weir's are proud of our heritage! Our family-owned and operated company was started in 1948 and through the years, Weir's has grown ... from a Shop ... to a Furniture Village ... that now contains an Interior Design Studio and Gallery; Service Center; Country Store; a working U.S. Post Office; Atrium and Clearance Centre ... and we're still growing ... and looking to the future! Weir's was founded on principles of honesty, integrity, quality and service ... and we continue to seek to follow these guidelines in day-to-day business.

Highland Park High School is proud of its heritage, too. And we are constantly encouraged by the exceptional work our educators do with the young people in our community. Keep up the good work of ... looking to the future ... while building on the past!

WHY THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS A FREE LUNCH.

A natural part of human nature, it seems, is the unquenchable desire to get something for nothing. Unfortunately, the world was not made to match human desire. For example, three-fourths of it is covered with water — and man has no gills.

The only way around this dilemma is to grow up — to become mature enough to separate our "wants" from the facts, and then live productively with those facts.

The fact which prevents the existence of the free lunch, for instance, is that nothing in our material world came from nowhere or disappears into nothingness. Since our economic life is based upon material things, each is assigned a value based upon the source of the material, the effort involved in making it more useful, and the transportation involved in getting it to its destination. This value is the cost which must be paid — whether it's a lunch or a lunar rock.

The fact that you don't pay for the lunch doesn't make it free. Somebody picks up the tab — and that's why government handouts are as spurious as free lunches. Government is never a source of material goods. Everything produced is produced by the people — and everything that government gives to the people, it must first take from them.

The only product-created money the government has to spend is that taxed or borrowed out of the people's earnings. When government decides to spend more than it gets in this way, the extra unearned money must be created out of thin air via the printing press. When this kind of money is spent, it takes on value only by reducing the worth of all earned money, savings, and insurance.

This devaluation is called inflation, and it's the tab we all pick up when we allow government to sell us the myth of the free lunch.

Through the swamps of night
Through the deserts of day
Time paves a historic way
a fire is lighted
Man is sighted
a wheel is made

Of the ten highest-rated General Motors dealerships in America, only one is in Dallas.

Recently, General Motors surveyed customers all across the country through a program called the Customer Satisfaction Index. A survey that gauged the satisfaction of customers who had purchased a GM car the year before.

When all the information was compiled, Sewell Village Cadillac was not only one of the top ten General Motors dealerships in the country, we were also the highest-rated Cadillac dealership in all of Texas.

Why are our customers so satisfied? We think the reason is simple. When you buy a Cadillac, you deserve to be treated like a Cadillac owner. At Sewell Village Cadillac, that means service. When you buy a new Sewell Village Cadillac, you get the free use of one of our 40 loan cars, a Service Department that's open all day Saturday, and 84 service bays. You receive helpful, friendly assistance every time you walk into the showroom. Every time you drive into the Service Department.

She romps through our hearts and minds at will,
 Carefree and laughing, sometimes quiet and still —
 Her sensitive nature and warm loving smile,
 Help us to abandon our worries awhile —
 She's grown into a woman, our little pink ball,
 Learning and living, unafraid to fall —
 She's pretty and fickle, and funny and sad,
 And sometimes she takes advantage of Dad —
 In all that she is, and may become,
 We'll always be with her,
 she's always the one —
 God's gift to renew us, this daughter of ours
 Justifying our existence, everyday, all the time!

Kiss today goodbye,
the sweetness
and the sorrow,

We did what we had to do, and I can't regret,

What I did for love, what I did for love.

Look, my eyes are dry,
The gift was ours to borrow,

It's as if we always knew,
But I won't forget,
What I did for love,

What I did for love.

Gone, love is never gone,

As we travel on, love's
what we'll remember.

Congratulations, Catherine

It's slow good!

Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, printed Volume 58 of The Highlander. The 352 pages are printed in 22 16-page signatures, Smyth-sewn, with headbands. All copies were printed on eighty-pound enamel paper.

The body copy, captions, and headlines were set in Helvetica medium. Broadway, Lazybones, Davida, and Stripes are some of the types used on the Introduction and Conclusion pages. Spot colors used on Introduction and Divider pages are 100% Super Blue and 70% Process Yellow.

Our special thanks go to Bradley Photographers for taking all the portrait pictures of students, and faculty, and several sports teams and club pictures. We would also like to thank Kincaid Photo Service and Custom Color Corporation. Their fast service made meeting deadlines more possible.

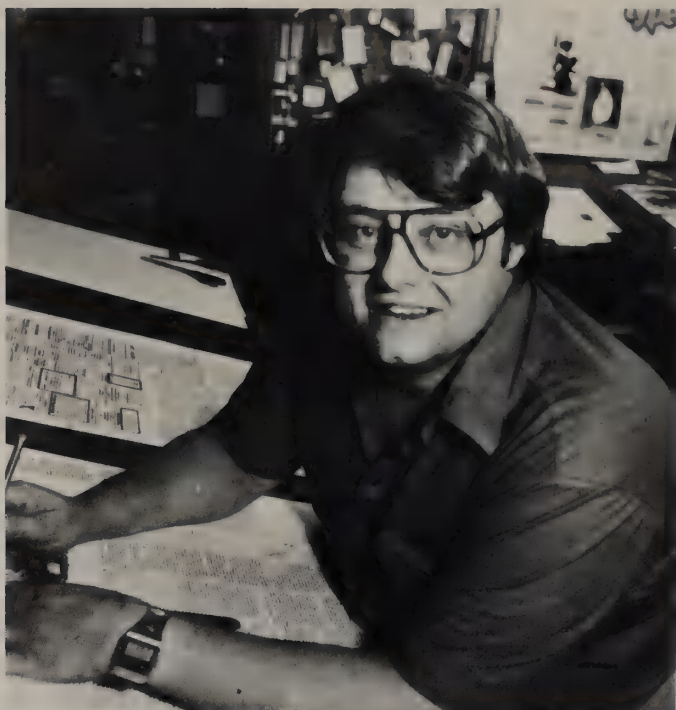

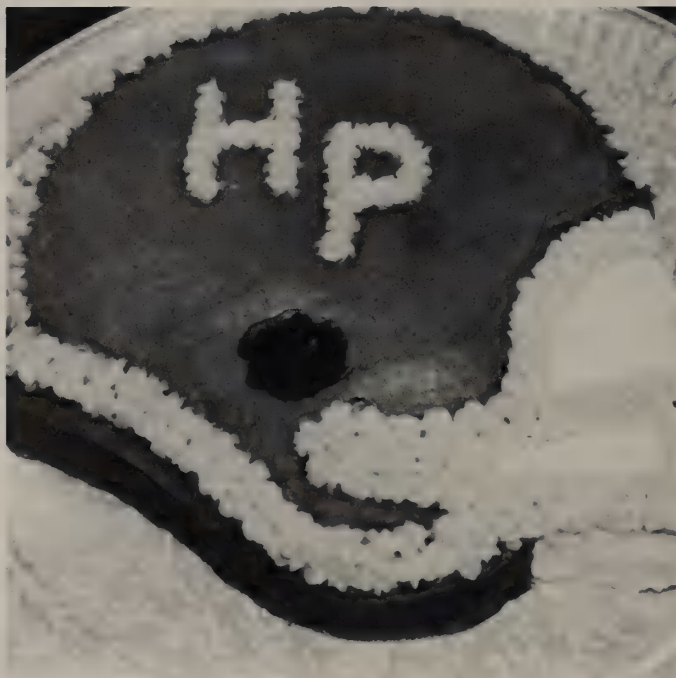

We wish to express sincere thanks to our sponsor Miss Katherine Carpenter, our business advisor Miss Gladys Bradshaw, and our Taylor Publishing representative, Mr. Acie Mitchell. Their advice was priceless.

We would also like to recognize Houston Holmes, our photographer. Without him we would never have made it.

Finally, Co-Editors Tricia Buddendorf and Cathy Fuller and Co-Business Managers Vicky Hart and Alison McClelland would like to thank our families and friends. Their help and understanding saw us through all our ups and downs.

ANTICIPATION??

Anticipating the fun-filled activities each school year brings, students quickly settled into the day to day routine despite the new schedule.

Spirits were raised with the opening of Highlander Stadium to house the record-breaking 1980 Scots.

With the close of the second semester seniors began to realize that the end was near. With activities, time was short.

Is it a cake?: Scot supporters go to great lengths to back their boys.

Plano #7: This one speaks for itself.

Handy Helper: Much thanks to P.C. News photographer Phil Stevens for his work.

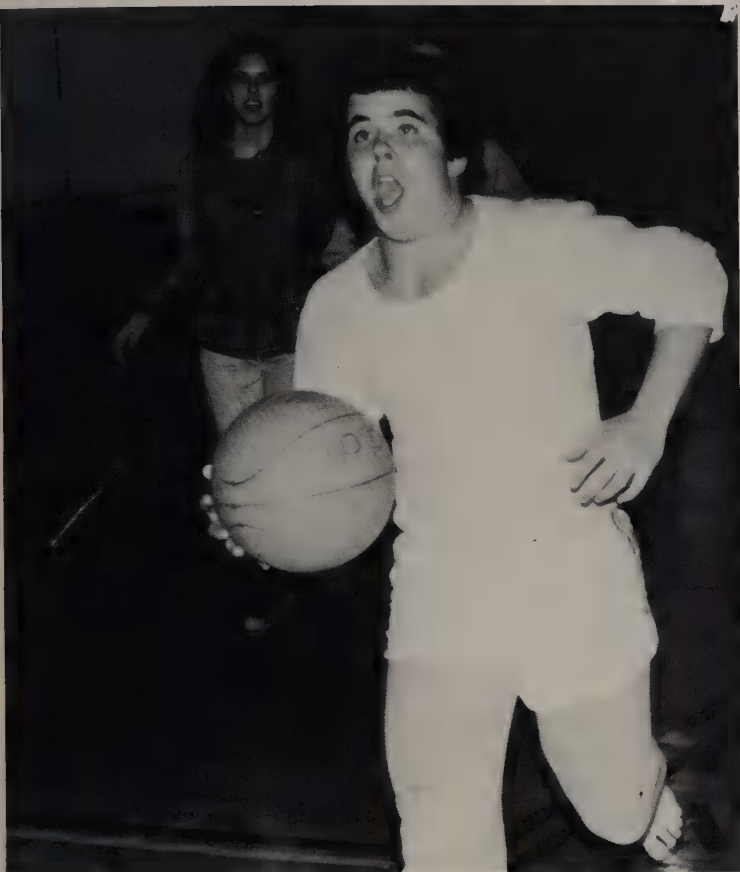

Morning madness: Cheerleaders take charge of a before-school pep rally.

Ape Man?: Jason Wright moves down the court preparing for his next shot.

Unhappy editors?: Bagpipe co-editor John Marks decides to take things into his own hands and put away co-editor Margaret White.

Summing things up!: WE DO BELIEVE!!!

It's been worth the wait!!
